

Report by Dimitris Mantzanas

Report-Request for to be given the name "Saladin" to a "mighty human" UN Blue Helmet Inter-planetary forces Division, and to be named as "Division Saladin"

I have describe in my documents as and in my document Total Report/Proposal to UN a general picture about the creation, the large in extend, the existence, and the operation of the collectively and enormous Earthy's "who", but of course the units of the collectively enormous Earthy's "who" must be organized from their baby years as collectively and enormous "who" and must grow up under my own supervision and with the contribution of their Mother's (from the moment they will born them and take care of them will be and their Mother's) and other people (their take carers, as and their per field teachers) and always under the auspice of UN, with humane ideals and values, with savoir faire, with military values and war morality, with deep belief to God and to Jesus, and of course with advanced the sense of discipline in their duties but and in their daily personal lives. And for better control of all this (that can be really enormous and fabulous in amount of units) and in order to be find in under easy control I propose the collectively enormous Earthy's "who" from the beginning of creation of his extension to the collectively and enormous "who", to be organized in Divisions (and so that to can to extend in really enormous and fabulous amount of units). Me Dimitris Mantzanas want these Divisions to be many and for their units of each Division to born, to grow up, to live, and to based in some delimited, is not need exactly delimited, but in some extent delimited in geographical surface areas and these delimitations must have in some degree and some common characteristic or at least will be better to have in some degree and some common characteristic. And to add that for reasons of discernibility between them, these Divisions is better to have names, and with their names it is better to attribute them properly warrior characteristics, as and to gives them more bonds with their origin geographical area and with their whole Earthy provenance in general. So the names of the military battle formations and especially the names of the Divisions (formations with force to conduct autonomous any kind of missions) is and in order the Divisions to hold bonds with the origin of their names, the history of their names, the tradition, the religious beliefs, the military and war principles and values of their names, the strategic and military formations tactics and with the combat tactics of the warriors in the battlefield, the honor and the dignity, the art of the war, the culture and the history of the names they bear, a great name of a great warrior who his name I think that are worth to bears a Division of great "mighty human" warriors, is the name of one of the best

Muslim warriors the name of the "Saladin" (to note that me from decades ago am deep believed in God (I do not know his name, but sure his name can be Allah) and in Jesus but independent of religions and I do not know but probably independent of religions will be and all the "mighty humans" but sure will have deep belief to God and to Jesus, but I think that worth them a Division to named Division "Saladin"). And I am requesting to examine and approve my request, so that a Division of "mighty human" warriors that my pursuit is to be create and to based in the places where the great warrior Saladin he lived and acting (I think that these countries are (and please correct me if somewhere make fault), the Iran, Iraq, Palestine, Syria, Lebanon, Egypt, Yemen), to bear his name, that is, a "mighty human" interplanetary UN Blue Helmets force Division to be named and to bring the name Division "Saladin". Their existence of the "mighty humans" is balanced and means (have main purpose and destination) of the defense and protection of all the planet Earth against of any kind of hostility and of course as many Divisions will be create and in other geographical areas all will be members of the enormous indivisible Earthy's who' and as UN "mighty human" Blue Helmet interplanetary forces will represent the UN and in other planets. I am asking from the religious leaders of the Muslim countries and from the governmental and military authorities of these countries to take care so that through the UN to be given to all those forces of capabilities (women who want to born mine children) who potentially there are in their countries (as many of them there are) the chances, and to me the opportunity to make them children, so that they to born mine children and over the time to formed and the first Division "Saladin". So the units of the Division "Saladin" will be born, will grow up and resident in this wider geographical area, where and they will be working in normal and always legal and honest jobs as and all the rest humans, and having and the advantage of the continuously communication through interface and interaction among them when will appear the whichever need in very soon time to be composed in combat Division for to counter-array whichever threats and dangers, and for facing catastrophes from these of natural and geological phenomena of which the prediction will not be able to, nor their prevention. And will be a unit integrated into the broader UN plan of "mighty human" Blue Helmet interplanetary forces of UN and under the supervision of the UN that will also maintain somewhere defined a place/base/camp manned permanently from some necessary for this purpose units of the Division (who Divisions in the adult age of their units will be economically autonomous without no one economic contribution from the UN). I have in my plan that the entire development should be structured, organized, controlled by the UN and to be under the supervision of the UN Blue Helmets sector. They will not be unruly or a mess that will roam around uncontrollably, but the opposite all the "mighty human" will act under the supervision of the UN.

The Crusaders and Saladin, the greatest leader of Islam

"Killing Muslims and Jews in the name of God is not murder, but manslaughter. Only in this way do you bring glory to our God"

Bernard of Clairvaux, hieromonk, to the crusaders shortly before their invasion of Jerusalem

Jerusalem is a holy city for all three monotheistic religions. It is the city of Christ, the city where Abraham dwelt and the prophets lived, it is the place of the Rock, the Gate of Mercy, the seat of Solomon and the House of David. It is the city of the Temple of the Resurrection, Golgotha, of martyrdom. It is the city from which the prophet Muhammad flew on Buraq, the winged horse, high above the Dome of the Rock and was led to the Garden of Eternal Abode.

In Jerusalem since 638 AD, when Caliph Omar ibn al-Khattab captured the city from the Eastern Roman Empire, the three communities (Orthodox Christians, Muslims and Jews) lived harmoniously, without tension between them. In fact, Omar assured the Greek patriarch that he would respect the life and property of all. When the patriarch asked him about religion, the Islamic caliph suggested that they walk and that he show him around the holy places of Christianity.

When they reached the Holy Sepulchre, Omar asked for a carpet to pray on outside the church. The patriarch showed him a corner inside the church, but the caliph refused: "If I do that, tomorrow morning the Muslims will come and occupy the church. They will say that Caliph Omar prayed here." The patriarch understood that his question about respecting religion had been answered. From then on and until the Crusaders took the city, the sounds of the bells mingled with the call of the muezzin and the psalms of the Jews...

Plain in front of the walls of Jerusalem, dawn of July 15, 1099

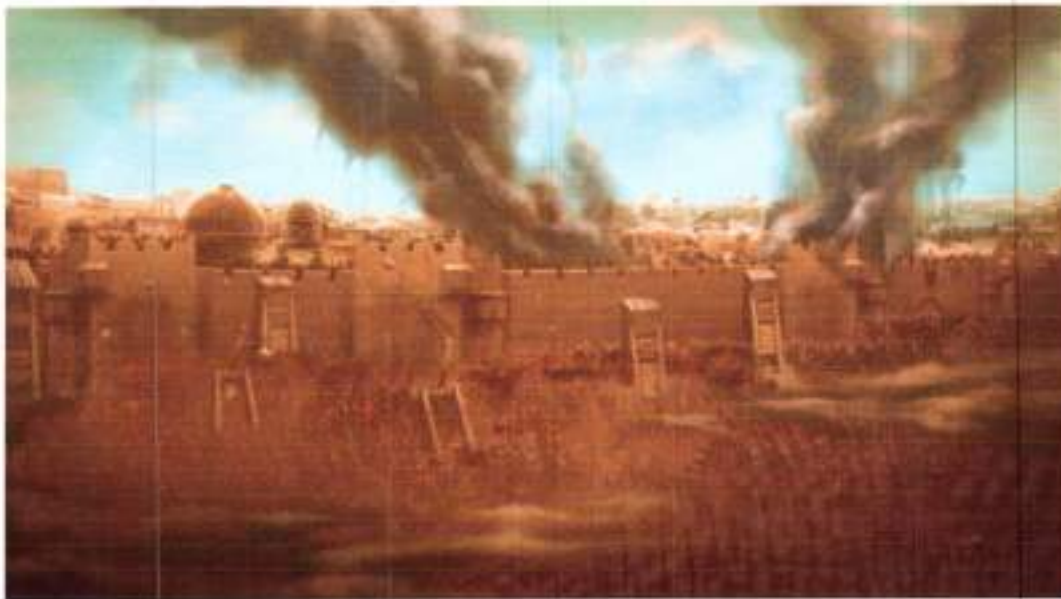

Under the walls of the holy city, thousands of ironclad knights and even more ordinary soldiers had gathered, struggling to carry their huge swords from fatigue and heat. Although it was night, the stifling atmosphere had exhausted the "soldiers of God."

That night, all of them were barefoot and, at a safe distance from the arrows of the Muslim defenders, they walked around the walls, holding torches. They had been fighting the pagans fiercely for days now, but the city would not fall. They had left Europe, which was plagued by the quarrels of petty feudal lords, and had gone to liberate the Holy Land for the "glory of God." All of them knew deep down that they cared little about this. They only had money, gold, and plunder in mind. In fact, their sins and the murders they would commit had already been forgiven by Pope Urban II himself.

In the tent of Raymond of Toulouse, the war council among the leaders of the crusade had flared up: "There is no way we can take our banners and leave. This city will fall into our hands. It is His will," said Godfrey of Bouillon and drank his red wine in one gulp. Drops dripped onto his lush beard and rolled down his blood-stained chest. "We have not come so far to leave now," added Count Raymond, and the other leaders who were still wearing their armor nodded their heads in agreement.

"My lords, I have made a deal with the Arab leader of the city, that dog, Ifkhar. He will let us in, as long as we do not harm any of his guards. He will leave and then the city is ours."

Godfrey, who was listening to his count thoughtfully, interrupted him with irony: "I hope, Raymond, that everything will happen as you say, because then they won't even find our armor. Our own people will slaughter us. This crazy hermit, Peter, has already made the knights walk barefoot so that the city will fall."

And indeed, when the hot sun of that July day rose in the sky, the banners of Islam had come down from the walls of Jerusalem. The "soldiers of God" captured it and bloodied it. Godfrey, to show how altruistic he was, refused to be proclaimed King of Jerusalem and preferred the title of "Defender of the Holy Sepulchre" (Advocatus Sancti Sepulchri).

The hordes of crusaders had entered the city. Jerusalem was experiencing an unprecedented wave of murder, savagery, rape and hatred in the history of mankind. Thousands of Orthodox Christians were slaughtered by men in armor. Thousands of Muslims were cut in two, beheaded, impaled, massacred, thousands of Jews were burned alive in their synagogues, where they had gone to find protection.

Jews and Muslims were lined up side by side and their bellies were opened with sharp swords. Then, like hyenas and while the people were still alive, the men with the cross on their backs searched with their bare hands in their spilled intestines to find gold coins that they thought they had swallowed.

The tall horses of the crusaders could not walk over the corpses in the streets. Some chroniclers of the time report that in the lower areas of Jerusalem, the blood of the people reached the bridles of the horses. Neither the Armenian Christians nor the Copts were spared. The crusaders stormed the Church of the Resurrection and tortured the Orthodox priests in order to seize the Holy Cross. The stone streets of the city were filled with blood, in which the victors, who had sewn the cross on their backs and chests, waded, before falling to their knees to thank God.

Guibert of Nozan, a monk who followed the Crusaders and lived through the fall of Jerusalem, did not express the slightest remorse for the ironclads who continued to slaughter innocents, women and babies, days after the fall of the city: "No success compares to ours. We Franks did no harm to the Muslim women, beyond piercing their bellies with our spears."

88 years later, arid Lubiya desert, "Horns of Hattin" region

His height did not impress you, but his behavior, his intelligence and his decisions had made him the leader of the Muslim world, which for years had been divided by the quarrels of its local emirs. The Crusaders had taken full advantage of this. But everything showed that something had changed... Inside his large tent, which smelled of incense and rose water, in the center of a vast camp filled with the green banners of Islam, the Kurd Salah ad Din Yusuf ibn Ayyub sat comfortably on its thick carpets. Everyone called him Saladin. Around him, his aides gave him reports from the enemy camp, the men with the cross.

"My lord, we have locked them in a huge vice, in the desert, just as you ordered. The infidels are hours away from the wells of Sepphoris. They were caught like a mouse in a net. They followed us into the desert, the fools, without having foreseen the water. Now they are bursting with heat and, as soon as the sun rises higher, they will bake in their armor."

Saladin stroked his beard with satisfaction. The plan he had devised had gone brilliantly. The arrogant crusaders, who had disregarded the agreements on the free movement of pilgrims and attacked the Muslim caravan carrying his own sister, would pay dearly. The Kurdish leader of Islam faced a Christian king who trembled at his own shadow and was a prey to the appetites of the bloodthirsty "Knights of the Temple", King Guy de Lusignan. He made one strategic mistake after another and Saladin simply enjoyed it. A lion facing a lamb.

When the sun rose high, Saladin mounted his white Arabian steed, drew his famous Damascus sword from its sheath, and gave the order. An unprecedented slaughter ensued among the Crusaders, who, thirsty, gazed at the Sea of Galilee from afar. From every point on the horizon, thousands of Saladin's men poured out on horseback and fell upon the Crusader lines. The Battle of Hattin was like a hawk attacking a dove. Thirst had overcome the Crusaders before the Muslim swords had cut them in two. The "Holy Cross" that the Crusaders had tortured from the Orthodox priests when Jerusalem fell and which they now carried with them in battle, fell into the hands of Saladin. The knights believed that at the last moment Saint James would burst forth from a cloud of dust and slaughter the Muslims by the thousands...

Within a few hours, all the leaders of the Crusaders fell into Saladin's hands. The defeat was total.

In Saladin's tent

The sun was setting over the Sea of Galilee. The leaders of the Crusaders were led into Saladin's tent. The leader of Islam politely nodded to King Guy to sit on a cushion to his right. The rest of the Crusaders, in torn clothes and covered in dust, stood upright and trembled with fear. Saladin took a golden goblet, filled it with cool sherbet, and offered it to Guy. It was a sign that he would not kill him. He drank greedily and held out the glass to Lord Santillon, the vicious Crusader, the prince of the castle of Kerak, whose forces had attacked the caravan of pilgrims. Santillon, after this act, roused the other lords to battle.

"Drink, Santillon, but not from my hands. Drink because you will never drink again," roared the Kurdish leader and continued coldly: "How many times have you sworn peace with us and then broken it? How many times have you signed agreements with us that you have never respected?" Santillon, instead of answering, spat into the tent.

With an incredible speed that made the other lords gasp, Saladin rose and in one motion drew his sword from its sheath. The hand of the prince of Kerak, severed at the shoulder, traced an arc in the air, bathing the other knights in blood and landing at Guy's feet. Santillon looked at his hand meters away and then began to scream. Saladin, with a movement of his head, handed him over for execution to the leader of his personal guard, called "Bright Embers", a nickname he had earned from his passion and efficiency in battle.

Saladin spared the lives of everyone else. Both the crusader leaders and the ordinary soldiers of the enemy. Then he made a move that demonstrated his strategic greatness. Instead of waiting and resting on the laurels of his victory, as so many of his predecessors had done, he gathered his army and pointed in one direction: "My lions, in a little while we will liberate Jerusalem," he said and galloped towards the holy city.

In a few days, the huge army with the apricot and green banners of Islam stood outside the western walls of Jerusalem, at the same spot, in front of the Tower of David, where 88 years ago the city fell.

Its defender was Lord Valian, a very intelligent knight, the son of a knight, who admired Saladin. And Saladin had enormous respect for the Frank. After the first reconnaissance skirmishes and as soon as the Christians saw through the high walls Saladin's men setting up huge catapults, they asked Valian to negotiate. He himself went to Saladin's tent and asked for peace. The Kurd tested him: "Neither amnesty nor mercy for you," he thundered. "Tomorrow will make us your masters. You will pay for the rivers of innocent blood that flowed through this city."

Valianus lowered his head and calmly replied: "Since we have no hope of your showing mercy, my lord, know that we will all die with honor. But before that, we will kill all the Muslims in the city and hang them on the walls for you to see, and then, before we surrender our souls to the Lord, we will level the Rock and let you enjoy the pain of its loss."

Saladin, who did not expect such an answer, embraced Valian and told him that he promised that no Christian would be harmed in the city. "Open the walls and whoever wants to leave is free to do so. Whoever stays will preserve his religion, honor and reputation. I swear by the Holy Quran." For those who wanted to leave the city, an amount was set as a ransom for Saladin's release. Ten gold coins for men, five for women, one for children and the elderly.

On October 2, 1187, Jerusalem fell without a fight. Saladin kept his word. So did his successors.

Saladin's impact on the Muslim world has been immense ever since. In the Old City of Jerusalem, at its entrance, it is written: "Allah, Muhammad, Saladin" (god, prophet, liberator)...

Damascus, January 1920

The Ottoman Empire collapsed, World War I was over. The victors were taking their spoils. French general Henri Gouraud sat on his white horse outside the city gates. He waited for the garrison to surrender to his troops. In a short time it was all over, Damascus was once again under "Frankish" occupation, after almost seven centuries.

The Guru, before even settling into his office in the government building, demanded that the city's qadi be brought before him. Immediately, a venerable old man appeared. "Take me now to the tomb of Saladin," he said in the tone befitting a leader of an occupying army.

In a quarter of an hour, the Guru was standing in front of the tomb of the greatest hero of the Muslim world. The tomb of the man who had driven out the Crusaders.

The Guru, without caring about the Arabs who had gathered in the Meydani and were watching him, made sure that his words were heard: "We have returned, Saladin, you never expelled us. This is the victory of Christianity over the barbarity of the crescent."

Bernard of Clairvaux, hieromonk, to the crusaders shortly before their invasion of Jerusalem

[So had done they the old time crusaders at that time, they obviously were murderers, but as then those, and now in nowadays, now the fourth nazi, illegal, criminal, genocidal nazi murderous, parasitic (echelon this time) reich formation pretend (and probably they from many years ago, without me to know that, they pretend and that) that even before they perpetrate all these (billions in numerous) of the nazi crimes that they have perpetrated against me and against my own genus, and against all my provenance of mine and of my own genus (and against billion other humans and against all the Mother Nature and Against the entire planet Earth and against the environment that is finding (the universe) the planet Earth), and among all of these unholy and horrible nazi crimes and for the most unholy and hideous nazi crimes that they have perpetrated (and they continue to perpetrate) against me and against my own genus, that and for the, by their own nazi motivations and the by their own always premeditation nazi morph murders { in serial premeditated homicides against my own (unborn) in the gestation stage of their lives babies, that constitute and nazi morph genocide (holocaust) against my own genus and against me, and against Mother Nature and in further analysis and against and the same the environment inside which (the universe) finding the planet Earth}, that they have perpetrated (and what crimes they continue to perpetrate), they pretend that they themselves had already been forgiven by the nazi priests joined to their illegal, nazi, criminal, genocidal nazi murderous their nazi side, and they from all religions and representatives of religions, are the priests of the fourth nazi, illegal, criminal, genocidal nazi murderous, parasitic (echelon this time) reich formation which pretend and the Gods (and that they can to decide instead of God himself) and the instructors of Jesus (that they can to indicate to Jesus what he himself to do) they to write papers [.....

[And obviously they must have written papers from long time ago (from 1974-1975? It remains soon to proven if so) and pretend that they can (and in advance) to justify or to forgive on behalf of God, nazi crimes that the fourth nazi, illegal, criminal, genocidal nazi murderous, parasitic (echelon this time) reich formation would perpetrate and that they subsequently perpetrated. But I have shaped the impression that they must have written and more papers {and that they even knowing themselves the unholy nazi crimes and the unholy and hideous nazi motivated premeditated murderous genocide (holocaust) that for their nazi genocidal murderous eugenic military programs, that the fourth nazi, illegal, criminal, nazi genocidal murderous, parasitic (echelon this time) reich formation have perpetrated and continue to perpetrate} to pretend that they are the God and that they (and long time after the crimes from their own nazi parasitic side were perpetrated) can writing papers and retroactively to justify or and to forgive on behalf of God (and in such degree that they pretend that their scrap papers exceed the laws, the courts, and all the institutor) these nazi criminals and premeditated genocidal nazi murderers {the priests which wrote that papers (and I have shaped the impression that were and are the greek orthodox church) they were writing that scrap papers, by having nazi genocidal murderous intentions against my own genus and against me (against the humane variation "mighty humans" against the Earthy's "who") and against the Mother Nature}, and the nazi criminals and premeditated genocidal nazi murderers to laugh in front and against of the Father (me myself) of the murdered by themselves his

(my own) own babies, (and all of them to laugh in front and against of their biological Father (me myself, me was always and always me will be their Father and their Mother and no one else) and they to laugh in front and against him (me myself) in his resident country (I lived from my birth permanent in greece) where all around him (him-me), all the nazi genocidal murderers greek people as they from years ago laughing for whatever crime perpetrating, as and more they were screaming from their cheerful for the murders of my own babies that they have perpetrated and for what crimes continued to perpetrate as and for what crimes they continue to perpetrate, as and as many other nazi numbers of all the rest of the fourth nazi, illegal, criminal, genocidal nazi murderous, parasitic (echelon this time) reich formation especially the summers coming for their vacation in greece in front and against him (me myself) laughing for what crime perpetrating, as and more they and were screaming from their cheerful and for the murders of my own babies that they have perpetrated and for what other crimes continued and continue to perpetrate, and as they and all of them together the fourth nazi formation but and the whole nazi criminal parasitic echelon conspiracy but unfortunately for many time and many of their fans (and most unfortunately poor usually people and from other countries) from the 2009 giving through that their website theatrical nazi criminal performances, laugh in front and against him (me myself) and against his own (my own) genus, for all of the crimes that they themselves the fourth nazi, illegal, criminal, genocidal nazi murderous, parasitic (echelon this time) reich formation, from the 1974-1975 and onwards have perpetrated, and from the 2009 and onwards all of them with all their nazi numbers (nazi numbers are all of them) together that are all of the fourth nazi, illegal, criminal, genocidal nazi murderous, parasitic (echelon this time) reich formation all of them together (adopting by themselves and all the crimes that their states until then had perpetrated) continued to perpetrating, and that until they (the of all of them their illegal, nazi criminally insane, genocidal nazi murderous, harmful parasitic their echelon machines basements), and all of them (all the nazi numbers that were and are all of them) all the usa people and all the rest of ukusa agreement countries peoples and all the greek people, to be uncovered what nazi without balls criminal scums and genocidal nazi murderous, harmful for all the Earth parasites that they are and nothing else, and from there and beyond there and continuing to now (and as will be continued until their disappearance) they are be cursed on by billions humans for all the crimes that they (from 1974-1975) have perpetrated and for all what crimes they continue to perpetrate. But all of them together continue to hide behind their illegal, nazi criminal technical ways parasitizing from me, their echelon machines in their illegal, nazi criminally insane, genocidal nazi murderous, parasitic their echelon machines basements, as undergrounds nazi without balls criminal and nazi murderous genocidal personalities that always they were and are, and they continue to perpetrate nazi crimes, continue to pretend, continue to write in their papers lies, slanders, and false accusations against me and against the souls of my own babies that they themselves have murdered (and they continuously to saying insults against their souls) and against all of my own genus, and they and all of them to continue illegal, nazi criminal technical ways with their echelon machines to parasitizing from me, their nazi wretchedness and their underground misery that all of them themselves always were and they are, and without they can be never and nothing else except or beyond the nazi wretchedness and underground misery that they always were and are (and not me never me, nor no one of my own genus "mighty humans" never). But also and the most unheard of they to pretend secretly and hidden in basements and behind machines and religious scenes, and without the subject's knowledge (in this case me the subject, so they without my own knowledge) and secretly from him (secretly from me myself), they unholy way to pretend that they can in his name (they to pretend that they can in my own name) to justify and forgive unholy and horrible nazi crimes against him (against me myself) and against his own genus (and only his own genus, is only my own genus), and that they and all of them together can then and in continue to accuse him for these crimes, and they even more to pretend that they with their illegal, nazi criminal technical ways parasitizing from him (parasitizing from me), their echelon machines that can steal from him (they to pretend that they can steal from me, and from God, and from the Holy Virgin Mother, and from Jesus) the souls of his (the souls of my own) murdered infants "who", they by their own nazi motivations and premeditation unborn (in the gestation stage of their lives) murdered, and to pretend that they can exploit these souls, on behalf of their own personal and their own states nazi unholy criminal and nazi unholy and hideous murderous (and unholy and heinous genocidal nazi murderous), political, military, economic interests and gains and they to continue to perpetrate more nazi unholy crimes and more nazi unholy and hideous morph genocides, but as they themselves every day and almost all the day saying and confessed (and as they for themselves decades now since 1974-1975 perpetrated and they continue to perpetrate on behalf of their own illegal, nazi criminal, genocidal nazi murderous, personal and of their own states political, military, economic, interests and gains) now and on behalf of their own children's political (all of them are from their birth nazis), military, economic interests and wealth fair. And all of them to try with their illegal, criminal, nazi criminal technical ways parasitizing from me, their echelon machines perpetrating from their illegal, nazi criminally insane, genocidal nazi murderous, harmful parasitic, echelon machines basements more nazi crimes against me (and against the souls of those of my own genus (my own unborn babies) whom, they from their own premeditation by their own nazi parasitic side premeditated murdered, and against to all of my own genus} they continuously to try to impose to me (and to souls of my own, by them themselves murdered babies) and to all of my own genus, and that of course against me (and against the souls of my own, murdered by them themselves, babies) and against all of my own genus and against all the Mother Nature and against the God himself and against the Jesus, what they write in their scrap papers. And what do they write? They write lies and slanders against me {they write lies and slanders (and fabricated lies and slanders and false and fabricated false accusations) against all my life's path that beginning from June 1974 and onwards} and lies and slanders and false and fabricated false accusations against my own babies who they themselves murdered and against the souls of my own babies who, they murdered, as they write lies and slanders (and fabricated lies and slanders) and against all the rest of my own genus, as well as they write false (and fabricated and false) accusations against me (and all of them trying all the time falsely to accuse me for all the crimes that they have perpetrated (and for what crimes they continue to perpetrate), even all of them trying all the time falsely of course to accuse me even more and for the murders (the nazi genocidal holocaust against my own genus) of my own babies that they themselves by their own premeditation premeditated murdered, as they trying to accuse me and for their own insulting words and behavior against the souls of those my own babies who they themselves murdered, they write false (and fabricated false) accusations against my own babies who they themselves murdered and false (and fabricated false) accusations against their souls of those my own babies who they themselves murdered, as they write false (and fabricated and false) accusations against and all the rest of my own genus "mighty humans", they even write that they can telling to me lies and slanders for me that they can falsely to accuse me to myself {(they pretend that they can write lies and false accusations against me in my brain and with such way as me to cannot distinguish that from the reality) of course they write and many times saying almost all the time saying what they never could and they never can do} and in continuing automatically falsely to accuse me to my own genus "mighty human". And as well as they write and the paraphrases that they have made from Holy Scriptures and their own para religious concepts and gibberish, as and parasitology's as nazi parasites that they themselves always were and they are, and paraphrases from philosophical works and sociological models and as nazi parasites that they themselves were from decades ago (from 1974-1975) and they are, they write and all the time saying and many parasitology's'. And they from their illegal, nazi criminally insane, genocidal nazi murderous, harmful for the entire planet Earth and parasitic their echelon machines basements beyond all the other what they nazi criminal technical ways saying and from there only nazi criminal technical ways they can saying {and in their continuous tries to beat me (without of course they can beat me never) they many times have called the Jesus as murderer of unborn infants (and that they according with his words premeditated murdered my own babies in unborn yet stage of their lives) and they call the God himself as their collaborator in all of the nazi crimes and in all the nazi murders that they have perpetrated (and in what crimes they continue to perpetrate)), this is the greek orthodox church the main nazi priests of the fourth nazi, illegal, criminal, genocidal nazi murderous, parasitic (echelon this time) reich formation (and which from years ago many times when in athens in general, I passed outside a church they ring the bells in a celebratory tone as if the nazi crimes and murders they perpetrate against me and against my own genus were celebratory and they rejoice in their perpetration) . And why the greek orthodox church that? And even and if representatives and of other churches and other religion beliefs similar that, why that? The greek orthodox church never call me, to discuss with me about me (me the most and the only appropriate and with legitimacy to say about me (for the purposes of my creation, of my own creation that is and of my own genus creation, and my destination) and about my own genus "mighty humans", and even and in case that they had false information's about me and my life and about the purposes of my own that is and of my own genus creation, why they did not communicate with me? to call me? They to discuss with me? What do they fear of me? Their belief in God and to Jesus were not stronger than me? And of many of my own genus "mighty humans" like me? If something like that they say, then they were and are blasphemers and antichrists (neither 50.000 and more mighty humans together cannot do none one of what the Jesus did (and always Jesus with his simple and calm his character and behavior) in his life as Divine-Human on Earth). So, the conclusion emerge is that from the moment that they the greek orthodox church learned for my existence they and expressed and genocidal nazi murderous intentions against me and against my own genus "mighty humans" - the Earthy's "who" a genus created by Mother Nature for the defense and protection of all the Mother Nature and the entire planet Earth].

They had left Europe, which was plagued by the quarrels of petty feudal lords, and had gone to liberate the Holy Land for the "glory of God." All of them knew deep down that they cared little about this. They only had money, gold, and plunder in mind. In fact, their sins and the murders they would commit had already been forgiven by Pope Urban II himself. [I never said that the representatives of the religions or at least some of them have not made in the past big mistakes, but the next ones of them and they which live in nowadays era, have not learn nothing from the history? They live in the era of the crusades? Then for the crusaders was the then Pope Urban II himself, for the nazis of the fourth nazi, illegal, criminal, genocidal nazi murderous, parasitic (echelon this time) reich formation and as the situation seems to be and contemporary crusaders, are the greek orthodox church themselves? Is and the ecumenical orthodox patriarch Bartholomew himself? Is and the patriarch of north america himself?]

In the tent of Raymond of Toulouse, the war council among the leaders of the crusade had flared up: "There is no way we can take our banners and leave. This city will fall into our hands. It is His will," said Godfrey of Bouillon and drank his red wine in one gulp. Drops dripped onto his lush beard and rolled down his blood-stained chest. "We have not come so far to leave now," added Count

Raymond, and the other leaders who were still wearing their armor nodded their heads in agreement.

"My lords, I have made a deal with the Arab leader of the city, that dog, Iftikhar. He will let us in [As I have already mentioned in my documents (even though they many times have called me "gav" dog and goofy) I did not make never and I am never doing and I am never going to do no one negotiation and no one agreement about this issue, with no one and with no one way never, and to mention one more time that the 'liberation day" must be a clear win, no one negotiation with no one of their nazi part, the nazis must to completely overcoming and to hyperkeratosis, and at least as for me as and for my own genus, I do not count at all neither their words nor all of these nazi crimes that they have perpetrated and against me and against my own genus, nor what crimes they continue to perpetrate and against me and against my own genus], as long as we do not harm any of his guards. He will leave and then the city is ours." [I am not going to move no one step from in front and always against of them, and I will always continue to move against them, until I to pass as steamroller over all of them]

Godfrey, who was listening to his count thoughtfully, interrupted him with irony: "I hope, Raymond, that everything will happen as you say, because then they won't even find our armor. Our own people will slaughter us. This crazy hermit, Peter, has already made the knights walk barefoot so that the city will fall."

And indeed, when the hot sun of that July day rose in the sky, the banners of Islam had come down from the walls of Jerusalem. The "soldiers of God" captured it and bloodied it [of course they the crusaders were not soldiers of God, as and their contemporaries similar to them, but in nazi form and continuers of the third nazi (germanic then) reich formation, that is, the fourth nazi, illegal, criminal, genocidal nazi murderous, parasitic (echelon this time) reich formation are not at all the good ones, they never were, and which every time saying something (at least of all them their white house residents fuhrer's of all them) add to the end (as and hypocrites that they were and are) and that the God save america (they mean themselves the usa's) are not at all soldiers of God never were, but were from decades ago (since 1974-1975) and continue to be without balls underground nazi, illegals, criminals, genocidal nazi murderers, and nazi parasites, and one of the unholy and hideous crimes they have perpetrated is and their leading role in the perpetration of the genocide against the Palestinians in Gaza Strip a crime that could not have happened if they had "come out" from their illegal, nazi criminally insane, genocidal nazi murderous, harmful nazi criminal technical ways parasitic from me, their echelon machines basements and that crime (the genocide against the Palestinians) in these places where some {the old age crusaders, in some way similar with them (with the fourth nazi, illegal, criminal, genocidal nazi murderous, parasitic (echelon this time) reich formation) have perpetrated and similar crimes until to leave from there defeated and being hunted from the Saladin and his warriors. }. Godfrey, to show how altruistic he was, refused to be proclaimed King of Jerusalem and preferred the title of "Defender of the Holy Sepulchre" (Advocatus Sancti Sepulchri).

The hordes of crusaders had entered the city. Jerusalem was experiencing an unprecedented wave of murder, savagery, rape and hatred in the history of mankind. Thousands of Orthodox Christians were slaughtered by men in armor. Thousands of Muslims were cut in two, beheaded, impaled, massacred, thousands of Jews were burned alive in their synagogues, where they had gone to find protection.

Jews and Muslims were lined up side by side and their bellies were opened with sharp swords. Then, like hyenas and while the people were still alive, the men with the cross on their backs searched with their bare hands in their spilled intestines to find gold coins that they thought they had swallowed. [Here is a description of what crimes and with which ways the crusaders were perpetrating these crimes, and the description fit with the way that the fourth's nazi, illegal, criminal, genocidal nazi murderous, parasitic (echelon this time) reich's formations their illegal, nazi criminally insane, genocidal nazi murderous, harmful for all the planet Earth, parasitic their echelon machines basements describe to me (many times every day) how they themselves {the fourth nazi, illegal, criminal, genocidal nazi murderous, parasitic (echelon this time) reich formation} and with how much unholy and horrible way they {the nazi parasitic side themselves} by their own premeditation have murdered my own babies (unborn, in the gestation stage of their lives), how they rushed and sexually abused them before out of the wombs die, how they dismembered their bodies, how they steal their organs and their bone marrow, how they spilled out their intestines. In order they to trade their human organs and their elements and they based on the nazi morph murderous genocide (the nazi morph holocaust) that they themselves have perpetrated (and they continue to perpetrate) against my own genus and against me, they themselves to fabricate and their nazi genocidal eugenic programs for their military forces.]

The tall horses of the crusaders could not walk over the corpses in the streets. Some chroniclers of the time report that in the lower areas of Jerusalem, the blood of the people reached the bridles of the horses. Neither the Armenian Christians nor the Copts were spared. The crusaders stormed the Church of the Resurrection and tortured the Orthodox priests in order to seize the Holy Cross.

The stone streets of the city were filled with blood, in which the victors, who had sewn the cross on their backs and chests, waded, before falling to their knees to thank God. [As they (the old age crusaders) were made, as exactly many years now doing and the fourth nazi, illegal, criminal, genocidal nazi murderous, parasitic (echelon this time) reich formation, premeditated by their own premeditation perpetrate billions unholy and nazi crimes and perpetrating all these of crimes gives the opportunity themselves to they and to perpetrate and billions more other nazi (as nazi they were and are) crimes, as and murders, massacres, genocides, nazi morph genocide (holocaust), and after all of them (their nazi parasitic side) going to the churches {this is how it happened years before 1975 (if it had happened otherwise, would it have been the same development? I really do not know) and the vast majority of them were Christians and they still say they are Christians (they are not, they are enemies of both God and Jesus)}, some of them (as for example and for sure the representatives of the greek orthodox church) felling and to their knees to thank God for their nazi criminal, murderous, and nazi genocidal, and nazi motivated and morph genocide (holocaust), their actions, and of course they pretend that the God help them (as and blasphemers and antichrists that they were and are), and as well as they pretend and saying lies and in front of Jesus pictures, and that refusing they themselves to accept that the God knows of course that they lying in front of him himself and in front of the pictures of Jesus, and always they refusing to accept that must be punished they themselves for all the crimes (directly and indirectly ways they have perpetrated and for what crimes they both ways continue to perpetrate) that they have perpetrated and for what crimes they continue to perpetrate, and that must be punished themselves and for all the deaths they (directly and indirectly ways) have caused (they since the 1974-1975 and onwards by they keeping and maintenance under their nazi occupation and in morph of slavery my own mighty human self – the Earthy's "who") and what deaths they both ways continue to cause, and that must be punished from valid national courts, from countries with valid constitutions and validity, as and from international courts. And of course, as and that for all when the time come, they will be judged and from the God himself for their final judgment, and for more punishment for them? and for their punishment in eternity? The God himself knows.]

Guibert of Nozan, [his contemporaries is the greek orthodox church] a monk who followed the Crusaders and lived through the fall of Jerusalem, did not express the slightest remorse for the ironclads who continued to slaughter innocents, women and babies, days after the fall of the city: "No success compares to ours. We Franks did no harm to the Muslim women, beyond piercing their bellies with our spears." [Give a description and how the fourth nazi, illegal, criminal, genocidal nazi murderous, parasitic (echelon this time) reich formation themselves and by their own premeditation among them and in pre-collaborating together with these theirs nazi prostitutes (and as theirs and priestesses of their all of them para religious concepts supervisor the satan) that had accepted (obviously as nazi and prostitutes that they were and are and for money from their nazi parasitic side) to artificial fertilized (with my own sperm that they were know that were stolen from me) and to gestation my own babies until all of them together, as all of them together had premeditated to murder (unborn) those babies whom of my own genus they gestation (if they wanted to born mine children would have come to me and not to them which have stolen from me my own sperm), how they have pierced, but they after by of common among them pre-collaboration, their bellies took from inside my own babies (unborn) in order they without show neither the slightest remorse for their genocidal premeditation to slaughter innocents babies for their own nazi eugenic programs for their military forces. But they themselves many times have add and their own description and as they many times have said how rushed and to sexually abused them before they catch up to die out of the wombs so to avoided at least this one of the many crimes (and of the many other crimes against them beyond the most unholy and heinous of all these, their murders) beyond the most heinous and horrific of all, perpetrated by the fourth nazi, illegal, criminal, genocidal nazi murderous, parasitic (echelon this time) reich formation against them, the pre-planned from years before their perpetration by premeditation of the fourth's nazi parasitic reich formation side and by their own nazi motivations premeditated and by themselves in cold blood being executed the serial murders of them, that was both the main and basic crime {although they by perpetrating nazi crimes against me had stolen my own sperm and (without my knowledge) technical had been fertilized those my own children, them were my own and only my own babies and of course from their technical fertilized conception were intended to born and intended from their conception to be units of the Earthy's "who", that is, lawful ones and of course to having in their personalities and their characters, their progenitor the my own, characteristics of my own personality and the elements of my own character} that the fourth nazi, illegal, criminal, genocidal murderous, parasitic (echelon this time) reich formation perpetrated against them, { they of course could have leave them to born, of course their echelon machines before even my babies were born, would had turn out of order and would totally be destroyed by UN, me of course I would love my babies they were and are only my own babies (always were and always will be my own children and always inseparable members of all of my own genus and from indivisible Earthy's "who") and the all situation would not in where now finding } and which crimes (their murders) themselves they exploited to subsequently perpetrated (and they to continue to perpetrate) and many other crimes against them against their bodies and against their human existences, as and by words and behaviors and insults against their souls.

[And all of what crimes have perpetrated against them and all of what crimes continue to perpetrating against them, all were and are and always will be and crimes against me and against and all of the rest of my own genus "mighty humans" - against the inseparable, from his creation inseparable and to the eternity inseparable my own genus of "mighty humans", inseparable among all of the "mighty humans" and indivisible Earthy's "who" and one among of all them, the first of all them, the first "mighty human" and progenitor of all "mighty humans" I am and me Dimitris Mantzanas]

Such as exploitation and trade of their human organs and components and crimes against the memory of their human existences as humans who, were and are, and this and their insistence on many more nazi crimes perpetrating to saying and repeating hundreds of times every day what heinous and hideous crimes they have perpetrated are also crimes they have perpetrated against billions of other people who are outside of their nazi parasitic side, outside the fourth nazi, illegal, criminal, genocidal nazi murderous, parasitic (echelon this time) reich formation that they are. And this in their attempts to dehumanize them, to deprive them of their human ideals and values and to turn them against the same human hypostasis that they themselves are, to deprive them of the future, to trap them in the past, in the past that they themselves (without being able to escape from the past) the fourth nazi, criminal, genocidal nazi murderous, parasitic (echelon this time) reich formation they are in, and to lead them gradually to the extinction of the human kind itself.

As well as crimes against their souls, by the fourth nazi, illegal, genocidal nazi murderous, parasitic (echelon this time) reich formation, as they accusing with all their nazi wretchedness and their nazi cowardice and of course falsely and unholy and heinous accuse even and the same those my own babies who, they themselves (unborn, in the gestation stage of their lives) murdered, and for the murders that they themselves perpetrated against them and for all the other crimes they have perpetrated (and continue to perpetrate) against them, they trying to insulting even and their souls by calling them as gay because as they themselves many times accused them because (my own unborn babies) were unable on their own {as they themselves had excluded them (my own unborn babies) from their Father (me myself) and they (my own unborn babies) were alone} to face the murderous attacks, that all the nazis of the fourth nazi, illegal, criminal, genocidal nazi murderous, parasitic (echelon this time) reich formation, by their own premeditation all of them together made against them and managed to murdered them (managed to murdered my own unborn in the gestation stage of their lives babies), and they the nazi genocidal murderers themselves trying to insulting their souls they have called them (of course falsely and unholy and hideous lying against them and perhaps fabricated and false accusations against them) as perverted , trash , and waste and worms and many other insulting words, behaviors, characterizations, and fabricated pictures against them.

And out of hatred against their souls , the fourth nazi , illegal , criminal , genocidal nazi murderous , parasitic (echelon this time) reich formation, still tries (in vain by their nazi parasitic part , they fail , but they continue to try and to pursue) to separate and steal them from me and from my own genus and from God Jesus and the Virgin Mother Mary, and without they being able to do so, they pretend that they can keep the souls of those my own babies whom, they themselves by their own nazi genocidal murderous parasitic part premeditation murdered, that they can keep these souls imprisoned in their underground dungeons and with these souls to supply their underground parasitic illegal, nazi, criminal , genocidal nazi murderous , echelon machines with energy and tortured them souls to supply from the souls with energy whole their fourth nazi, illegal, criminal, genocidal nazi murderous, parasitic (echelon machines this time) reich formation, (they pretend that they can keep souls imprisoned in their criminal, genocidal nazi murderous, parasitic underground echelon machines dungeons and by torturing them to parasitize from these souls), they pretend that they can perpetrate sexual crimes against the souls, that they pretend that they can imprisoned in their illegal, criminal nazi insane, murderous nazi genocidal, parasitic from me, their echelon machines dungeons, and they pretend that they can manipulate the souls of those of my own babies who, they murdered and they to send their souls (they, cursing on them and insulting calling them like worms) to attacking against me their biological Father, and they blaming Allah and Jesus for all the crimes that they themselves all the fourth nazi, illegal, criminal, genocidal nazi murderous, parasitic from me, (echelon this time) reich formation and the whole illegal, nazi, criminal, parasitic from me, echelon conspiracy, they have perpetrated and for what crimes they continue to perpetrate.

And they saying themselves that since Allah did not prevent them from perpetrating and does not prevent them from continuing to perpetrate all these crimes that they are perpetrating, then they (and obviously falsely and by their conscious falsely, that is, they all the fourth nazi, illegal, criminal, genocidal nazi murderous, parasitic (echelon this time) reich formation pretend their lies and their slanders and their false accusations) concluded (and they continue to conclude) that Allah gave them his approval and that he helped them to perpetrate all these unholy, heinous, and horrible crimes and murders, and genocides, and by their nazi motivations genocide (holocaust) that they have perpetrated and they continue to perpetrate, and they have even accused Jesus, (themselves unholy and lying as criminals murderous falsely saying and claiming) that Jesus is the murderer of my own (unborn, in the gestation stage of their lives) babies that they themselves, the whole fourth nazi, illegal, criminal, genocidal nazi murderous, parasitic (echelon this time) reich formation, by their own premeditation (and from years ago before their execution pre planned) murdered because as they themselves say, they perpetrated the serial murders of my own (unborn, in the gestation stage of their lives) babies, the nazi morph genocide and holocaust against my own genus and against me, following they as they themselves (unholy and lying as criminals murderous that they are falsely saying and claiming) said and basing as themselves said on words of Jesus, they have obviously paraphrased the words of Jesus and therefore all the Holy Scriptures which in their entirety are indivisible and indisputable and they have gone so far in para religions concepts and para philology as they to call Jesus as murderer of unborn babies (my own babies) whom, they themselves murdered.

And therefore, according to my own opinion, I believe that they have also perpetrated crimes against the religions whose highest hierarchies, I request to judge whether the fourth nazi, illegal, criminal, genocidal nazi murderous, parasitic (echelon this time) reich formation themselves have also perpetrated crimes (and whether they continue to perpetrate) crimes against souls (my opinion is that they have perpetrated (and that they continue to perpetrate) crimes against the souls of my babies whom, they themselves murdered (me consider that their insulting of any kind their insulting behavior against the memory of their humane existence and against their spiritual as souls existence constitutes crimes against the souls of my babies), and if they crimes and against religious beliefs, and against God himself, Jesus, and the Virgin Holy Mother (of course no one can harm nor to insult God nor Jesus nor Virgin Holy Mother), but they the nazis by their nazi part and harmed (and they continue to harm) with their criminal and genocidal nazi murderous action and insult (and they continue to insult) in the total all the God's creations, (and if they have perpetrate (and continue to perpetrate) and if they by their nazi, criminal, murderous part have perpetrated (and continue to perpetrate) with their unholy and heinous crimes and crimes against all spiritual beings who have beneficence with powers by God himself.

[And of course, and I will impose (and by the of my own and the of my own genus part) against all of them and their punishment for all the crimes that they have perpetrated (and for all what crimes they continue to perpetrate) against me (and against my own mighty human self and against the natural cosmic powers and forces that me by Mother Nature was created to possess only me and through me only and my own biological descendants all of my own genus and no one else) and against all my own genus and against all my origin and against all my own and of my own genus provenance and for all of the crimes that (both directly and indirectly way) they have perpetrated (and for what crimes they both directly and indirectly ways continue to perpetrate) and against other humans and against the Mother Nature, and against the entire planet Earth, and against the environment inside (the universe) finding the planet Earth, as I will impose against all of them and their punishment for all the crimes and all the deaths [that they unlawful and illegal having keeping and maintain under their nazi occupation and in morph of slavery my own mighty human self, they are responsible for their perpetration (for the crimes) and for all the deaths that occurrence from their nazi criminal and murderous actions and their nazi criminal technical ways parasitic existence {as for example from much deadly earthquakes and tsunamis, from natural disasters, but and for the extinction of many species of Mother Nature's living creatures that extinct from 1975 and onwards and of which their extinction (that constitute genocides against those species) could have avoided} and which crimes and who deaths, and which of Mother Nature's species genocidal extinctions, me in freedom condition of all my elements of my human self and of my inseparable from me and indivisible my own mighty human self-the Earthy's "who" (me and by alone, but me as I could having and children from my teenage years and together with my children, the inseparable and always indivisible collectively Earthy's "who") I could have prevent from their perpetration and from their occurrence and from their genocidal extinctions.

As well as I will impose against all of them and with timeless power and their rightful and fair punishment and for the most unholy and hideous nazi crimes {from all the nazi unholy and hideous crimes that they have perpetrated (and they continue to perpetrate) against me and against my own genus} against me and against all of my own genus {for the premeditated by their own premeditation (and from their own pre planning from many years before by themselves their perpetration) serial murders/homicides, the by their own nazi motivations perpetrated nazi morph genocide (the nazi holocaust) that they have perpetrated (and they continue to perpetrate) against me and against all of my own genus. And for the many other crimes related with these have perpetrate against those of my biological descendants (of my own genus "mighty humans"-the Earthy's "who") whom, they themselves the fourth nazi parasitic formation murdered have perpetrated (and continue to perpetrate) against them, and against me and against and of all the rest of my own genus "mighty humans", against the inseparable, from his creation (in June 1974) inseparable my own genus "mighty humans" and to in the eternity inseparable among all of the "mighty humans" my own "mighty human" genus and indivisible Earthy's "who" and among of all of them and the souls of my own (unborn in the gestation stage of their lives) murdered "mighty human" babies and one among of all of them, the first of all of them, the first "mighty human" – the first unit of the Earthy's "who" and progenitor of all "mighty humans" I am and me Dimitris Mantzanas]

And one of my own and as me the progenitor and of all of my own genus "mighty humans" – the Earthy's 'who' recommendation to General Secretary of UN about the "liberation day" will be, and through this my own document request to you, with which I am addressing to you for the creation and be Named of a Division, me make and my own recommendation to UN, so that and already to have be made and the recommendation of me and of my own genus to General Secretary of UN, that I recommend as part of the solution that 5.000 nuclear warheads to being dropped against the united states the center of the fourth nazi, illegal, criminal, genocidal nazi murderous, parasitic (echelon this time) reich formation, and if you give your approval for the at least one Division "mighty humans" to be created and to Name as Division "Saladin", it will be similar and with the of the 'Saladin' Division participation in the "liberation day" by attacking against the murderers of their brothers and sisters and for freedom, but and for justice to be served.}

88 years later [this time will be less from 88 years], arid Lubiya desert, "Horns of Hattin" region

His height did not impress you, but his behavior, his intelligence and his decisions had made him the leader of the Muslim world [I am not the Saladin neither his continuer, I am not even Muslim (I am deep believed to God and to Jesus but independent from religion beliefs), but I am obliged from my creation (from all the elements of my creation from all my provenance) always to continuing move (from the moment that they continue to exist, I cannot stay inactive) and always against the fourth nazi, illegal, criminal, genocidal nazi murderous, parasitic (echelon this time) reich formation (and always and against the whole nazi criminal parasitic echelon conspiracy, and I have and a good and real plan that can be realized for the lawful ones and for real progress and prosperity, and for expansion of the horizons in the universe, and of course as many times I have mention necessary element is the "liberation day" and they the fourth nazi, illegal, criminal, genocidal nazi murderous, parasitic (echelon this time) reich formation to stop to exist as nazi parasitic existence that they decades now (since 1974-1975) constitute and they are, and they to stop to exist and as nazi existence in general, and all of them (as well as and in extension and where it must and the whole nazi criminal parasitic echelon conspiracy) to be punished for all of the crimes that they and with whichever (directly and indirectly) way have perpetrated and for what of crimes and with whichever (directly and indirectly) way they continue to perpetrate, as well as and for all the deaths that they and with whichever (directly and indirectly) way they are responsible (as for example hecatombs of dead humans of earthquakes and tsunamis and natural disasters that could have been avoided, if they by themselves had "come out" from their illegal, nazi criminally insane, genocidal nazi murderous, harmful parasitic echelon machines basements) and for what more deaths and with whichever (directly and indirectly) way they continue to become responsible. And of course, and I will impose (and by the of my own and the of my own genus part) against all of them and their punishment and for the most unholy and hideous crimes against me and against my own genus (for the serial murders/homicides, the nazi motivated genocide (the nazi holocaust) that they have perpetrated against me and against my own genus (and they continue to perpetrate and against me and against my own genus)] which for years had been divided by the quarrels of its local emirs. The Crusaders had taken full advantage of this. But everything showed that something had changed [they the fourth nazi, illegal, criminal, genocidal nazi murderous, parasitic (echelon this time) reich formation had as one of their purposes and to abolishing in essence the UN organization, and they it was very close to that, as they intended to abolishing all the existential for the humane existence constants, targeted more the most high of these constants, the religious beliefs, that they wanted (with various ways paraphrase holy scriptures even and to try to accuse the Jesus for the unholy and heinous murders of infants that they have perpetrated, they reached even to the point they to call Jesus as murderer of unborn infants) to turn their followers (they wanted to turn the followers of the religious beliefs), as themselves they the nazi parasitic side by their own conscious decision were turned at least from the 1974-1975 (from decades ago, and as their actions proves, sure from the 1974-1975) against the God and against Jesus and since then they always were and are against the God and against the Jesus (and after that what would remain? The para-religious concepts of satan, that they by themselves the nazi parasitic side from years ago are follow? And if they (the nazi parasitic side) have to say something different about that for themselves, to write their papers about, and at least to inform the UN in writing, the issue is so serious], but we must not give them time at all, not anymore.]

Inside his large tent, which smelled of incense and rose water, in the center of a vast camp filled with the green banners of Islam, the Kurd Salah ad Din Yusuf ibn Ayyub sat comfortably on its thick carpets. "Everyone called him Saladin". Around him, his aides gave him reports from the enemy camp, the men with the cross.

The name of a real warrior the Saladin for the real and created warriors a "mighty human" Division, named as Division "Saladin"

"My lord, we have locked them in a huge vice, in the desert, just as you ordered. The infidels are hours away from the wells of Sepphoris. They were caught like a mouse in a net. They followed us into the desert, the fools, without having foreseen the water. Now they are bursting with heat and, as soon as the sun rises higher, they will bake in their armor."

Saladin stroked his beard with satisfaction. The plan he had devised had gone brilliantly. The arrogant crusaders, who had disregarded the agreements on the free movement of pilgrims and attacked the Muslim caravan carrying his own sister, would pay dearly [They without me to have at all knowledge about the issue and at all knowledge about the whole issue (I was thinking yet then that I was a simple human), and after first they have started that their own website on internet, they from the very close to me persons, first unprovoked (without at all me to have knowledge about) sexually attacked and abused my sister (and after that they were trying to accuse me and for this their own crime, and until 2013 they trying to accuse me, without me to know and without to can understand why they were trying to accuse me), of course they and without my knowledge from before the 2009 and since 1974-1975 have perpetrated billions nazi crimes against me and against my own genus (they have stolen my own bone marrow and my own sperm from 2005) and they continued and after the 2009 to perpetrate more billions nazi crimes against me and against my own genus. I never made no one kind of negotiations and no one kind of agreement, with no one way with no one of them, neither with all of them never, and I am not going to do never no one kind of negotiation and no one kind of agreement with no one way with no one of them, neither with all of them never, and now there is no time for more postponements, all of them must be face their punishment]. The Kurdish leader of Islam faced a Christian king who trembled at his own shadow and was a prey to the appetites of the bloodthirsty "Knights of the Temple", King Guy de Lusignan. He made one strategic mistake after another, and Saladin simply enjoyed it. A Lion facing a lamb.

As I wrote my comments on this article, they the fourth nazi, illegal, criminal, genocidal nazi murderous, parasitic (echelon this time) reich formation looking with their illegal, nazi criminal technical ways parasitizing from me, echelon machines as always they from 1975 doing through my eyes, and for this picture they comment, and they compared themselves with the bloodthirsty crusader criminal and murderer who be depicted in this picture and many times they repeatedly were saying and about that they and have murdered my own babies about the intended by their own always premeditation and incited of their own nazi motivations serial homicides the nazi morph genocide (holocaust) that they have perpetrated (and they continue to perpetrate) against my own genus and against me, and against all the Mother Nature and against the entire planet Earth, and against the environment in which finding (the universe) the planet Earth {that they as contemporary crusaders (crusaders of what religion belief? They clearly are followers and servants of the Satan and as him and them, all of them the fourth nazi, illegal, criminal, genocidal nazi murderous, parasitic (echelon this time) reich formation decades now (since 1975-1975) resident in basements in their illegal, nazi, criminal, nazi criminally insane, murderous, genocidal nazi murderous, and with their nazi motivations be intended and for their genocidal nazi murderous (holocaust against my own genus) purposes, nazi criminal technical ways parasitic from me, their echelon machines basements)

And all the time (they from many years now) say and para religious concepts, paraphrases of Holy Scriptures and paraphrases of the words of Jesus, and they pretend that their the nazi, nazi criminally insane, genocidal nazi murderous, parasitic echelon machines basements that they have some kind of divine powers and that they are not normal humans (of course they were not never and they are not normals at all, they are completely nazi abnormals, nazi perverted criminals completely insane, unrepentant nazi criminals and genocidal nazi murderers, blasphemers, antichrists, they are insults themselves), and the last much period of time (from mid-2023, and after they first, made to me known for first time that they and have murdered my own babies) and especially near the very end of the recent of time period, that before of which me made public this my own website (dimitris-mantzanis-mightyhuman.info) that is and the only my own website that have and ever had. They all the time saying blasphemes and curse words against the God and against the Jesus and against the Virgin Holy Mother and antichrist theories and para philology and all the time they try and to attack with insults against them and against the souls of my own babies "who", they themselves {they the fourth nazi, illegal, criminal, nazi genocidal murderous, (and always without my will, without my permission, and without my consent, and for decades and without my knowledge and secretly from me) parasitic from me, (echelon this time) reich formation, themselves incited by their own nazi motivations and always by their own premeditation (and from their own pre planning from many years before from they to executed their murders) they themselves, (unborn) in the gestation stage of their lives (they being perpetrating nazi genocidal holocaust against my own genus and against me)} they murdered, and they trying repeatedly many times every day to steal their souls from me their biological and their only Father (but they never could and they never can I would prefer to die than to abandon their souls), and even more they reached and to point to accuse the Jesus, that they themselves and under their conscious that in unholy and blasphemous and para religion concepts ways they paraphrased the words of Jesus and Holy Scripts and pretending that they themselves follow the words of Jesus based the nazi crimes and murders and the nazi genocidal murders of my own babies that they have perpetrated and whatever other crimes they have perpetrated (and what crimes they continue to perpetrate) on the words of Jesus and they have call many times the Jesus (and the Holy Scripts) as illegal, nazi criminal, murderer, nazi genocidal murderer of my own unborn (in the gestation stage of their lives) infants.

They pretend and that they can become spirits and that can travel as spirit forces and to cross the Oceans [as the Atlantic Ocean and especially they pretend that the nazi without balls trump that resident in the nazi brothel white house that he as malignant illegal, nazi criminal, nazi genocidal murderous, diabolic that have been shorted nazi parasitic electronic software program he himself (and as he himself pretend and many other of all them like him pretend), which come from their underground illegal, nazi criminal technical ways parasitizing from me, their echelon machines, from these about (50) acres of illegal, nazi criminally insane, nazi genocidal murderous, parasitic from me, their echelon machines basements that constituted from a heap of electronic chips and wires and electronic slates, keyboards and screens which they call as echelon machines and they years now pretend that this nothing that is something else except of what really are some illegal, nazi criminal way parasitic electronic devices, consists really of a heap of electronic chips, wires, and electronic slates and nothing else (these (50) about acres that were and are their basements are and their full capacity against me, they since 1974-1975 and in their tries to as much more could they to been parasitized from me, they have exhausted from 1974-1975 the capacity of their echelon machines) that are all whatever are and ever were be all these nazi criminal and nazi genocidal murderous, parasites and electronic be shorted-circuits that were and are all the nazi numbers (problematic underground-humans) that constitutes the fourth nazi, illegal, criminal, genocidal nazi murderous, parasitic (echelon this time) reich formation and of which from all of them (the be shorted-circuits), their brains/minds have come out completely slices. But as many times I have said, I was not never and am not never in no one basement and in no one echelon machine and in no one machine in general I am not technological construction I am not electronic device and I have immune (and as me and all of my own genus "mighty humans") to their illegal, nazi criminal ways parasitizing from me, their echelon machines and to malignant diabolic been shorted electronic software programs and electronic be shorted-circuits that were and are all of them, my own biological brain is from his creation much more advanced from their illegal, nazi criminal ways parasitizing from me, their underground heap of chips, wires, electronic slates, keyboards and screens, their echelon machines, as concerns for those which from their nazi criminally insane, genocidal nazi murderous, parasitic their echelon machines basements operate these nazi criminal ways parasitizing from me, their echelon machines, they and all the other (be shorted-circuits and malignant diabolic and been shorted-software's) like them have not no right to exist, their existence must terminated] and to come close to me and as (satanic spirits) diabolic spiritual beings they and to catch (arrest) with their hands, my thoughts and my own energy, even more they pretend that they as satanic spiritual existences that they pretend that become that can they and sexually to attack me (I should note that in my life, many times I have been involved in combats and body to bodies combats but never no one could fall on me and of course no one neither ever thinking to try to threaten my ass never and no one can never) and because every time say them that they cannot attack me, they always end up to say that they and sexually attacked to my own babies that they murdered (as also they and sexually attacked to many young women that wanted to born mine children) because they could not never and they cannot to attack me never.

They also pretend that they (many of the high rank in their hierarchy nazi numbers) as some kind of demonic spirits can take over the personalities of other people, they pretend that they can take over and my own personality and that they become me and to go away from me when they want (to making a reference to my writings in my Total Report/proposals, and to reiterate that my own personality from my creation is completely compact personality and no one could ever intervene) and that in the form of an exorcism, the greek people can drive them away from me, as they pretend and that dogs and cats can to perceive them and to drive them away from me. They also pretend to be demonic spirits who resident and move around the internet and make and speaking's through electronic devices and channels like the you tube as well as they make speaking's in the space around me as for example outside my room and they pretend that coming close to me, but of course they finding in their illegal, nazi criminally insane, genocidal nazi murderous, parasitic from me, their echelon machines basements thousands kilometers away from me (they would clearly want themselves to be instruments of satan and to acted under his orders), to note that from my creation in June 1974 until 2013 where for first ever time learnt that I am not a simple human and until later to learn and that there were always parasitizing from me, their illegal, nazi criminal parasitizing echelon machines, had passed more of 38 years, but never no one demonic spirit neither technical made in their illegal, nazi criminal ways parasitizing from me, their echelon machines nor real demonic spirit (I do not see no one real demonic spirit never, but I am not dispute that are exists) under the orders of satan could never to take over me, and no one never could and never can never (as I have mentioned I am deep believer to God and follower of Jesus).

They obviously of course and pretend, and always they illegally and criminally and without my permission, without my will, and without my consent, using and handling my own "mighty energy" and they constructing in their illegal, nazi criminal technical ways parasitizing from me, their echelon machines various nonsense and gibberish with my own energy, they tell lies and slanders against me, and against my own genus, they fabricate and make false accusations against me and against my own genus and they theatricalize/dramatize/mocking all this their nazi criminal, murderous and genocidal nazi murderous, and parasitic their wretchedness and misery.

But clearly from decades ago (since 1974-1975, when they with their own conscious always decision were closed in their nazi, illegal, criminal, genocidal nazi murderous, harmful parasitic echelon machine basements) they since then have turned against God and against Jesus, they from then are followers and servants of satan (they run behind him), and they follow his tactics (obviously they have dealt with and have read these tactics of satan) against people who believe in God as well as against me, against my own "might human" existence that from my creation be able energetically to perceive (my own mighty energy perception that covers the entire Earth and extend and beyond Earth's boundaries) beyond human vision (and to perceive more from what the eye and a simple human brain can) and of course it could not be different as the natural cosmic mighty powers and forces "mighty human" that I was created to possess, being imposed (by Mother Nature, and I could describe it as a safety valve) regarding of my creation was me to have deep faith in God and Jesus (and so from creation by Mother Nature about on all of my own genus).

The illegal, nazi criminally insane, genocidal nazi murderous, harmful parasitic echelon machines basements really follow in the perpetration of the crimes that they perpetrate, tactical and repetitive patterns (they with tension started on 2009 with nazi tactics and patterns from unethical paramilitary u.s. army manuals, in continuation and both in combination and paramilitary manuals and with several para religion concepts and paraphrases from Holy Scripts) and for several years they practiced against me and against other people tactical and repetitive patterns from recorded in unethical paramilitary manuals of the secret military services of the u.s. army based on unethical nazi experiments against people (they since 1974-1975 exercising tactics and motifs of these unethical paramilitary manuals against me, and in further analysis from then, they and against billion other humans) , many of these nazi murderous manuals coming directly from the nazi murderous programs of the third nazi (germanic then) reich formation, that the usa with operations, as for example with the operation paperclip had obtained directly from the nazi criminals torturers and murderers "doctors" of the extermination camps of the third nazi (germanic then) reich formation and other of them from unethical medical programs of u.s. army secret agencies. As many years now (since 2023) they continuing nazi criminal ways and saying with their illegal, nazi criminal ways parasitizing from me, their echelon machines and the May 2023 they saying with their echelon and machines and have confessed many times that they and have murdered my own babies, and they continue and after the May 2023 (and they continue) to saying and especially the two last about years, in the nazi crimes that they with their illegal, nazi criminal ways parasitizing from me, their echelon machines they always continue to perpetrate against me, they also involve para religious concepts and paraphrases of Holy Scriptures and try to use against me (obviously and against many other humans), regular and repeated patterns that in the Scriptures [I have read in a religious class once when I was a student and I happened to have a priest as a teacher, but which are also many of them mentioned in films such as the "Konstantin" (a hollywood movie) I should mention that in opposite with that movie, me when I faced a problem with my lungs, I was addressing as always me to Allah (as and for the souls of my own babies who the fourth nazi parasitic formation murdered, I was addressing and always me addressing to Allah to have them under his protection) and I was not addressing to any church but only to Allah directly to him with the way that I believe to Him, yes of course I went to a temple alone, it happened to be a

Christian temple, could happen to be a temple of any other religion belief, God (is the name of him Allah? Buddha? Does he have a name? in any case) not afraid and do not avoid temples of any religion belief, and I did not even beg God, anyway it would have been unnecessary (in simple words I asked him to judge and if he judged that he should help me, and I ask him in few simple words) as God looks at the all pre-life, at who, and at the who intention (no one can deceive/cheat God never), how do I judge the result? I cannot judge, I cannot judge him, all I can say is that I am healthy, did he help me? how? in what way? I don't know how nor in what way, but only he the God knew, only he could, only he knows, the only thing I can say with certainty is that I am healthy, and that surely God has never been and never is in any basement and in any echelon or other kind machine) and I asked him, he himself to have in his care the souls of those my own babies "who", they themselves the nazis of the fourth nazi, illegal, criminal, nazi genocidal murderous, parasitic (echelon this time) reich formation themselves by their own premeditation (unborn in the gestation stage of their lives) murdered, and that when the time comes and I die I will go to meet an inseparable and indivisible collectively of earth's "who?"), that are mentioned that the opposite of God, the satan, follow and exercise against the people (they also pretend that possess or that occupy young women and that they represent them, they also pretend to be female voices or that they themselves are female spirits). As well as and against those powers that by God himself were beneficence and having, in order to be serving the work of God, powers that after the permission of God himself they bring/have as (parenthesis (1), spiritual being powers, but also being powers that govern his creations), To mention about the aforementioned paragraph (1) that the "mighty humans" were created by Mother Nature to possess natural cosmic "mighty" powers and forces that penetrate (not dominate, but to penetrate) the creations (and plants) and all the living beings creatures of Mother Nature, I have already mentioned that my opinion is that with the permission and approval of God, life was created and exists on Earth. It was necessary for the "mighty humans" in order to be able to fulfill the purpose and destination of their creation which is the protection of all of Mother Nature and entire planet Earth, their "mighty humans" natural cosmic powers and forces (as my own the first of "mighty humans" natural cosmic powers and forces, so and for all of my biological descendants, my own "mighty humans" genus) and to penetrate the entire Earth and therefore all earthly life in order to be able to cover whole the Earth and to penetrate and even extraterrestrial life form and any other planet beyond the Earth, but also and other interstellar bodies in the range in which extend these powers and forces and "who" is not extend beyond the Earth's Solar System (but the "mighty humans" be created and in order to led the Earthy life and in other planets in other solar systems), conclusion that these natural cosmic "mighty" powers and forces can, under the will of the bearers of these powers and forces, "who" by their creation are only the "mighty humans" and no one else (these powers and forces are intended only for the "mighty humans" and to no one else), to influence, to the one positive, protective (protection from extraterrestrial threats and dangers), assistant (forecasting, preventing, and dealing with destructive geological phenomena and natural disasters) direction or the second circumstance (which by accidental factor occurred) negative that should never had be existed, the existence of this fourth nazi, illegal, criminal, genocidal nazi murderous, parasitic (echelon this time) reich's formation side that they themselves with their illegal, nazi criminal technical ways parasitizing from me, their echelon machines to influence to the negative direction, the life and functions of all the Mother Nature and of all the living creatures, as living creatures certainly are the humans. And in order this, that is, to influence to the one (and the only correct) positive, protective/assistant direction certainly takes something that only "mighty humans" who from all, they the "mighty humans" (from their creation by Mother Nature me am the first and progenitor of "mighty humans") bear/carry/possess these "mighty" natural cosmic powers and forces, and can have (from their creation) and to the high degree that required the knowledge and the advantage in intelligence so that, to can understanding of the cosmic environment, and of these "mighty" of the natural cosmic powers and forces, but also and of human as well as and of other types of Earthly, but and of extraterrestrial life spirituality, in order to be able to move {use/handle, and in state of inaction (in absence of move) by the bearers of these natural cosmic powers and forces "mighty humans" these natural cosmic powers and forces do not affect in any absolute degree any kind of life or inorganic matter} in a manner appropriate and always towards the positive, protective/assistant direction of these "mighty human" natural cosmic powers and forces.

To make a note, a reference from April 24, 2025 what they had said on 11:25 time morning greece hour (reference - 1) with their illegal, nazi criminal ways parasitizing from me, their echelon machines, they said that Latin America and Africa and Asia helped/help them, they to keep me limited with their echelon machines (that "liberation day" would never become a reality) on this condemned planet Earth (they hint that me never would have the chance to make children and to at least and in eventually if no other manner exist me and my own genus by alone we to move in other planets), condemned planet Earth by them themselves the fourth nazi, illegal criminal, genocidal nazi murderous, parasitic (echelon this time) reich formation they themselves to continuing for (continuing they to perpetrate nazi crimes and nazi murderous genocide against me and against my own genus) to annihilate me and my own genus – my own tribe and my infants "interstellar beasts"

(named by me interstellar beasts, because have powers and forces originating from powerful interstellar bodies – the horizons of factors) that they the fourth nazi, illegal criminal, genocidal nazi murderous, parasitic (echelon this time) reich formation by their own premeditation themselves, in the unborn stage of their lives murdered, and that in their tries to annihilate the human kind and every species of terrestrial life from the entire universe. And in their attempts with their nazi, illegal, criminal, genocidal nazi murderous, nazi criminal ways parasitizing from me, their echelon machines to continue they to parasitize from me, like nazi without balls frump scum parasites that are all of the usa and all the rest of usa agreement states and all the greek people, until they manage to wipe out every species of terrestrial life from the entire universe.

One more reference from the same day on 17:00 afternoon time greece (reference - 2)

while I was working in my office against all of them, that is, against all the fourth nazi, illegal criminal, genocidal nazi murderous, parasitic (echelon this time) reich formation, and whole the nazi criminal parasitic echelon conspiracy, all of them together said with their echelon machines and that with these same their illegal, nazi criminal technical ways parasitizing from me, their echelon machines that they caused me big time delays from to have completed on time the works that I do from my office against them, that they managed to make all the Latin America and the Africa and the Asia and the religious beliefs of all countries of these geographical areas to make them their own parasites, that is, to make them parasites to nazi parasites that they themselves the without balls nazi trump scum illegal, genocidal nazi murderous, nazi criminal technical ways parasitic echelon machines basements that are all the fourth illegal, nazi, criminal, genocidal nazi murderous parasitic (echelon this time) reich formation, that is, all the usa and all the rest of ukusa agreement states and all the greek people all they said with their illegal, nazi criminal ways parasitizing from me, their echelon machines and that all of Latin America and Africa and Asia write on their papers perpetrating crimes against the souls of my own murdered babies, against me and against all my own genus, what they themselves the illegal, criminal, genocidal nazi murderous, fourth nazi, parasitic (echelon this time) reich formation write, that is, that my own babies that they themselves the fourth nazi, genocidal nazi murderous, parasitic reich formation by their own premeditation and premeditated plan they, murdered that were and are parasites, and they said this (falsely claiming and meaning against me and against my own genus) meaning and that me and my own genus – my own tribe “interstellar beasts” are parasites (the previous day or the same day in the morning they falsely had said and falsely claimed that me am a parasite from my own babies that they themselves the 4th nazi, criminal, genocidal nazi, murderous, parasitic formation by their own premeditated plan they, murdered)

Regarding references (1) and (2) that I mention,

I am transferring to this document two notes (from the tens of notes that total for many of days I have in my archive) from what they with their illegal, nazi criminal ways parasitizing from me, their echelon machines had said that day, without me knowing if it was as they had said or if they had lied (I certainly have the impression from that time, from that day that I mention the notes that they were lying), but I do not have the opportunity to observe what happens beyond my field of vision, so I wrote and mention what exactly they had said) a few days later and while I continued to work from my office against all of them (against the nazi parasitic echelon machines their own side) policeman had come to my house, had illegally arrested me and had illegally imprisoned me for a fifth time in psychiatric institution that time from April 27 to June 10 for about one and half month.

This picture is the closest of them of the nazi parasitic underground echelon machines basement, of their each one of them personality existences picture that I could find on internet about their real appearance (in their internal existence) these nazi underground mice and servants of Satan must look something like that.

When the sun rose high, Saladin mounted his white Arabian steed, drew his famous Damascus sword from its sheath, and gave the order. An unprecedented slaughter ensued among the Crusaders, who, thirsty, gazed at the Sea of Galilee from afar. From every point on the horizon, thousands of Saladin's men poured out on horseback and fell upon the Crusader lines. The Battle of Hattin was like a hawk attacking a dove [The attack of the Planck energy emits, energetical beasts "mighty human" against the nazi criminals and nazi genocidal murderers fourth nazi parasitic (echelon this time) reich formation, it will resemble an attack of full armory energetical lions ("mighty humans" warriors) against nazi without balls mice (their nazi underground side)]. Thirst had overcome the Crusaders before the Muslim swords had cut them in two. The "Holy Cross" that the Crusaders had tortured from the Orthodox priests when Jerusalem fell and which they now carried with them in battle, fell into the hands of Saladin. The knights believed that at the last moment Saint James would burst forth from a cloud of dust and slaughter the Muslims by the thousands...[And the defeat of the blasphemers and antichrists the defeat of all of the fourth nazi, illegal, criminal, genocidal nazi murderous, parasitic (echelon this time) reich formation must be completed, total, and undaunted]

Within a few hours, all the leaders of the Crusaders fell into Saladin's hands. The defeat was total.

In Saladin's tent

The sun was setting over the Sea of Galilee. The leaders of the Crusaders were led into Saladin's tent. The leader of Islam politely nodded to King Guy to sit on a cushion to his right. The rest of the Crusaders, in torn clothes and covered in dust, stood upright and trembled with fear. Saladin took a golden goblet, filled it with cool sherbet, and offered it to Guy. It was a sign that he would not kill him. He drank greedily and held out the glass to Lord Santillon, the vicious Crusader, the prince of the castle of Kerak, whose forces had attacked the caravan of pilgrims. Santillon, after this act, roused the other lords to battle [whose forces had attacked the caravan in which finding and the Saladin's sister. As I have said I am not the Saladin, but they one of the close to me person in first attacked (and without me to have no one knowledge about) was against my sister and for many years they used that (against me and against my own genus) in order they to continue to perpetrate more nazi crimes against me and against my own genus and they to continue illegal, nazi criminal technical ways with their echelon machines to parasitizing from me (as and they still doing so, saying and many other lies slanders and false accusations against me (and against my own babies who they themselves by their own premeditation murdered, as and against their souls) and against my own genus, they still continue nazi criminal ways with their echelon machines to parasitizing from me and from my own genus), and they saying lies and slanders against me and against my own genus, to try they falsely of course (and probably and with false and fabricated accusations against me and against my own genus) to accuse me and my own genus, for their own nazi criminal technical ways parasitizing from me, they with their echelon machines parasitic nazi existence against me and against my own genus, and against all my provenance of mine and of my own genus.]

"Drink, Santillon, but not from my hands. Drink because you will never drink again," roared the Kurdish leader and continued coldly: "How many times have you sworn peace with us and then broken it? How many times have you signed agreements with us that you have never respected?" [I have never made no one kind of negotiations and no one agreement with no one of them (and with no one in general) and with no one way about the issue never and I am never do no one kind of negotiations and no one agreement with no one of them (and with no one in general) and with no one way about the issue never and I am not going never to do no one kind of negotiations and no one agreement with no one of them (and with no one in general) and with no one way about the issue never, so nothing limit me from with all my powers and forces and with all the powers and forces of all of my own genus to impose against them and their punishment for all the crimes that they have perpetrated and for all what crimes they continue to perpetrate, and for all the deaths they are responsible and for as more deaths they will become responsible] Santillon, instead of answering, spat into the tent.

With an incredible speed that made the other lords gasp, Saladin rose and in one motion drew his sword from its sheath. The hand of the prince of Kerak, severed at the shoulder, traced an arc in the air, bathing the other knights in blood and landing at Guy's feet. Santillon looked at his hand meters away and then began to scream. Saladin, with a movement of his head, handed him over for execution to the leader of his personal guard, called "Bright Embers", a nickname he had earned from his passion and efficiency in battle. [of course, and all of them all the fourth nazi, illegal, criminal, genocidal nazi criminal, parasitic (echelon this time) reich formation and the whole nazi criminal parasitic echelon conspiracy must be punished for all the crimes (directly and indirectly ways) that they have perpetrated and for all what crimes they continue (directly and indirectly both ways) to perpetrate, as and they must be punished and for all the deaths they (directly and indirectly ways) have caused and for all the deaths they (directly and indirectly both ways) continue to cause]

Saladin spared the lives of everyone else. Both the crusader leaders and the ordinary soldiers of the enemy. Then he made a move that demonstrated his strategic greatness. Instead of waiting and resting on the laurels of his victory, as so many of his predecessors had done, he gathered his army and pointed in one direction: "My lions, in a little while we will liberate Jerusalem," he said and galloped towards the holy city.

In a few days, the huge army with the apricot and green banners of Islam stood outside the western walls of Jerusalem, at the same spot, in front of the Tower of David, where 88 years ago the city fell.

[Figuratively speaking and writing, in a completely different case (is not about Jerusalem nor some other Jerusalem), but that could have a relevant with about the meaning fallings (and with subsequent factor to were being found under stealth, cover, and for many years and secret attacks all of the world's every Jerusalem and with any meaning of Jerusalem could have, as for example me, I have and my own Jerusalem the Earthy's "who", and in "who" individually and in of more units "who" collectively, until and enormous collectively count of "who" units, and for example from a religious point of view, all religions can coexist, as well as can coexist and all the cultures), as that for example that the capitals of six states where fallen before (51) fifty-one years', fallen they by themselves [They first attacked against an infant (me myself), but they were being defeated from the "mighty human" infant-from me myself (the first and the progenitor of my own the "mighty human" genus and as me as and all my own biological descendants the my own "mighty human" genus), and they had been defeated from an infant, an infant with an infantile (the my own infantile) but clear (and always is clear), and always straight (always straight power), and with fair (always fair and rightful), and deep believer to God (believer to real, clear, straight, and almighty power the God himself), and "mighty" powerful and forceful infantile brain a "mighty human" infantile brain (the my own infantile brain), and after they had be defeated they themselves, and their nazi worldview, they instead of making peace with the infant-with me myself (and with all of my own biological descendants the my own "mighty human" genus), they had of course this choice and he (me myself) was an infant with all the sweetness that the infants have, a "mighty human" created warrior infant (as and all of my own biological descendants the my own "mighty human" genus) but an infant (they could by themselves as and they were obliged to have done, they immediately (and before even they to attack the infant) by themselves to have dismantled their echelon machines system or and they had the choice first to had informed the UN organization and after they to have dismantled their echelon machines system), they from their hate against the "mighty human" infant (against me and against all of my own biological descendants, the my own "mighty human" genus) and from their hate for their defeat from the "mighty human" infant-from me myself and as me as and all of my own biological descendants the my own "mighty human" genus, (and they knowing the purposes (the defense and protection of all the Mother Nature and the entire planet Earth) and the destination (the progress the prosperity and the expansion of the Earthy life in other planes in the universe) of the creation and subsequent birth of the "mighty human" infant-of me myself and the simultaneously creation of his (the my own) genus the "mighty human" genus and they knowing that in order me and my own "mighty human" genus to fulfil the purposes and destination of my own creation and simultaneously and of my own "mighty human" genus creation, I had to have made children from my teenage even years). They against me (an infant me then) and against my own "mighty human" genus (as me the first and the progenitor of my own the "mighty human" genus), and against all the Mother Nature and against the entire planet Earth and against and the same the existence the God himself, they on behalf of their own personal and of their own states political, military, economic interests and gains [they without at all to hesitate in front of the seriousness and nazi hideousness of the unholy and heinous crimes that they were perpetrating against the "mighty human" infant (against me myself and against all of my own biological descendants the my own "mighty human" genus) neither of what crimes they from then had planned to perpetrate nor from their plan themselves constantly to be planning and they to be perpetrating in horrible criminally acts and unholy and heinous crimes, and knowing themselves that they by this own decision were lead themselves to an in darkness path, without light and without future and that only crimes and much more crimes they could to being perpetrate in of their own choice's path and knowing that they never could escape from their choice (that they never could escape from their nazi criminal technical ways with their echelon machines parasitizing from the infant (me was an infant then), their echelon machines basements) without themselves to be punished for all the crimes (directly and indirectly ways) they would have perpetrated, as well as and for all the deaths that they (with any directly and indirectly way) would were responsible until they to "come out" from their illegal, nazi criminally insane, genocidal nazi murderous, harmful parasitic their echelon machines basements, (what now are they saying? They did not make peace the 1974-1975 with the "mighty human" infant (with me myself and with my own biological descendants my own "mighty human" genus), what they are saying now? What do they claim that they can say now? And what obviously they falsely claim that they can say to (50) fifty years old "mighty human" in age now? They can say nothing, but they continue all time to saying and falsely to claiming that they can do, what they could never do and what they cannot managed never, that is, they continue falsely to claim that if they have time more and beyond the fifty years they to continue their illegal (nazi criminal, genocidal nazi murderous) parasitic existence, and if for some more days perpetrate more crimes against the then infant and now fifty years old "mighty human" (me myself) that they could manage to what they never managed to defeat him (to defeat me) obviously they continue to say what they cannot do never] They decided by their own conscious decision to be closed themselves and with their own always nazi worldview (and from then and onwards their nazi criminal parasitic worldview, but always their own worldview), in their illegal, nazi criminally insane, genocidal nazi murderous, harmful parasitic their echelon machines basements, and to forming they themselves by their own conscious decisions the their fourth nazi, illegal, criminal, genocidal nazi murderous, parasitic (echelon this time) reich formation, that is, (in their very initial stage) the washington , london, ottava, sidney, wellington, and in continue fallen and the entire their states that is all the usa and all the rest of ukusa agreement states (beyond the usa and the rest of ukusa agreement states, great britain, canada, australia, new zealand) and the greek state and in continue (because their downfall had no end and has no end never) were fallen and all of their states peoples. And they (their initial center) since 1974-1975 and onwards, and all them (the entire states of the capitals), and in continue and all of them (all the peoples of the member states of the fourth nazi, illegal, criminal, genocidal nazi murderous, parasitic (echelon this time) reich formation) adopt retroactively all the crimes of their own political and military representatives of their own states and their illegal, nazi criminally insane, genocidal nazi murderous, nazi technical ways with their echelon machines parasitizing from me, their echelon machines basements. All of them retroactively from 1974-1975 abandoned every concept of legitimacy, they renounced every concept of the same the existence the God himself. And they by their own conscious and premeditated (they had shaped and three committees – thinking tanks) decisions they by themselves have been closed themselves they in their about (50) acres of underground electronic chips, wires, keyboards, and screens which constitutes their illegal, nazi criminal technical ways parasitizing from me, their echelon machines, in what were (and the same in extent of acres are) and are that their about (50) acres their illegal, nazi criminally insane, genocidal nazi murderous, harmful for all the Mother Nature and parasitic their echelon machines basements, and since then (since 1974-1975) and onwards they keep and maintain with their parasitizing nazi criminal technical ways (with their echelon machines) under a type of their own nazi occupation (and in morph of slavery) my own "mighty human self" – the Earthy's "who" (and the entire planet Earth), and they with nazi criminal technical ways with their illegal, nazi criminal technical ways parasitizing from me, their echelon machines they parasitizing from me, their fourth nazi, illegal, criminal, genocidal nazi murderous, parasitic (echelon this time) reich formation. And they to continuously trying to limited the entire planet Earth in their own (in what all of them were since 1974-1975 and they are) about (50) acres underground heap of chips, wires, keyboards, and screens assembled in electronic devices that were and are their illegal, nazi criminal technical ways parasitizing from me, their echelon machines and nothing else, and they continuously trying to prevent the progress the prosperity the technological advance (they and technologically have remained in their before 1975 years technology, that in consists of long time ago now by been shorted their underground chips, wires, and nazi perverted electronic slates that and themselves all of them are, and all of them are not and nothing else). And since then they have preached and a dirty under cover (and for many years secret) unholy and hideous nazi war against billions of humans (and against all the existential for the humane existence constants), and against all the Mother Nature and against the entire planet Earth as and against every world's Jerusalem (against all what can mean the every world's Jerusalem). And in further analysis and after every train of thought the conclusion is that they from 1974-1975 they continuously try and they continue to try to annihilate human kind, and if they could annihilate and the entire planet Earth, and that all of them are and nothing else.

As well as they themselves since then and have preached (as themselves to be, and the contemporaries herod's, of the old age herod) and an undercover murderous, and genocidal, and genocidal nazi murderous (the nazi morph genocidal holocaust against (unborn) in the gestation stage of their lives "mighty human" of my own genus infants) war against the infants, in which their war against the infants they have murdered (except and beyond of my own biological descendants of my own "mighty human" genus infants) infants and babies and children and of millions other humans, in many individual crimes (homicides), but and in massacres and in genocides that they have perpetrated in Latin America, in wider middle east (as in Iraq and Afghanistan), and last and in the Palestine (over the time and not long time after this my own document I will write and supplementary add to my documents and one more of mine report, in which me and by documents I will proof and this of mine characterization against them that they were from 1974-1975 and they are and contemporaries Herod's).

And always as many opportunities and they had {(and they had many opportunities all these years they by themselves to have been hesitated in front of unholy and heinous crimes that they themselves have perpetrated (they to had hesitate for their perpetration before they to perpetrate these) and they to have been hesitated in front of hecatombs of dead humans (from earthquakes and tsunamis, hecatombs that would not have happened if they by themselves had "come out") for what they themselves were and are and always will be responsible (for the carry out of the responsibility)}, they to had "come out", always they that, their illegal, nazi criminally insane, genocidal nazi murderous, nazi criminal technical ways with their echelon machines parasitizing from me, their parasitic echelon machines basements always re-choices as resident for themselves. From the moment they (the 1974-1975) by their own conscious decisions themselves closed {they themselves forming their fourth nazi, illegal, criminal, genocidal nazi murderous, parasitic (echelon this time) reich formation} in their illegal, nazi criminally insane, genocidal nazi murderous, harmful parasitic their echelon machines basements, at then and since then they had not future they had only past and they cannot have no future never.

[I was never fall, neither even in my unborn infant age (neither even in the gestation stage of my life) was fall never, I was not hidden in no one echelon machines basement and in no one echelon machine ever, neither me nor no one of my own the "mighty human" genus-the Earthy's "who" never {(nor even infant boys, nor even infant girls fell never of my own the "mighty humans" genus never), enough of them or many, I do not know how many (unborn) in the gestation stage of their lives murdered because never fell, no one of my own the "mighty human" genus fell never}, and I am never fall, I am not never in no one echelon machines basement and in no one echelon machine never. I would prefer to die than to fall, I would prefer even and to let be destroyed the planet Earth than to fall, and is never going to, independently of how more losses in Live's from my own the "mighty human" genus (and if more losses occur would be as and the until now, premeditated murdered by the other side, by the nazi parasitic side), nor me nor no one of my own genus-my own tribe "mighty humans" - the Earthy's "who", would be found never in no one nazi echelon machines basement and in no one echelon machine never.]

Its defender was Lord Valian, a very intelligent knight, the son of a knight, who admired Saladin. And Saladin had enormous respect for the Frank. After the first reconnaissance skirmishes and as soon as the Christians saw through the high walls Saladin's men setting up huge catapults, they asked Valian to negotiate. He himself went to Saladin's tent and asked for peace. The Kurd tested him: "Neither amnesty nor mercy for you," he thundered. "Tomorrow will make us your masters. You will pay for the rivers of innocent blood that flowed through this city."

Valianus lowered his head and calmly replied: "Since we have no hope of your showing mercy, my lord, know that we will all die with honor. But before that, we will kill all the Muslims in the city and hang them on the walls for you to see, and then, before we surrender our souls to the Lord, we will level the Rock and let you enjoy the pain of its loss."

Something like that as in the picture they themselves (the fourth nazi, illegal, criminal, genocidal nazi murderous, parasitic (echelon this time) reich formation) many times (nazi criminal technical parasitizing from me, ways they with their echelon machines) have said to me that they (because me never stopped to move against them) have done against my own babies who, they by the their own nazi side themselves and by their own always premeditation (unborn) in their gestational stage of their lives, they murdered them, and that they will do again that against my own babies, because me never stop (and I am not going to stop never) to move against all of them against all of what they are, against all of the fourth nazi, illegal, criminal, genocidal nazi murderous, parasitic (echelon this time) reich formation. But as I have already mention I have order of all of my genus without to count at all the loses in life's of my own genus side and without to count at all any kind of loses always to continue to move always with all my strengths against all of them against all the fourth nazi, illegal, criminal, genocidal nazi murderous, parasitic (echelon this time) reich formation until all of them to be crushed completely and irreparably.

[Me am not doing no one kind of negotiations and no one kind of agreements with no one (nor with any of them nor with all of them) about the issue and with no one way ever. My own genus all of my own biological descendants do not allow me no one kind of negotiations and no one kind of agreement with no one about the issue and with no one way never, so independently from how many more losses of in Lives' from my own genus (obviously because of, from by their own nazi parasitic side, murders of my own (unborn) in the gestation stage of their lives infants) and in continue could be happen, as and losses of whatever else kind could be, I am not going to do no one kind of negotiations and no one kind of agreement with no one about the issue and with no one way never, the "liberation day" must be, and will be a clear win by the lawful ones against their nazi parasitic side.]

Saladin, who did not expect such an answer, embraced Valian and told him that he promised that no Christian would be harmed in the city. "Open the walls and whoever wants to leave is free to do so. Whoever stays will preserve his religion, honor and reputation. I swear by the Holy Quran." For those who wanted to leave the city, an amount was set as a ransom for Saladin's release. Ten gold coins for men, five for women, one for children and the elderly.

On October 2, 1187, Jerusalem fell without a fight. Saladin kept his word. So did his successors.

Saladin's impact on the Muslim world has been immense ever since. In the Old City of Jerusalem, at its entrance, it is written: "Allah, Muhammad, Saladin" (god, prophet, liberator)...

Damascus, January 1920

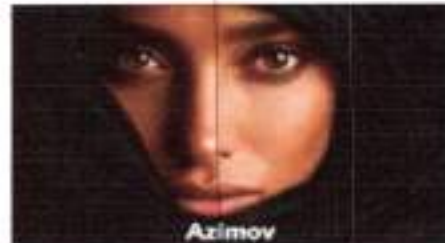

The Ottoman Empire collapsed. World War I was over. The victors were taking their spoils. French general Henri Gouraud sat on his white horse outside the city gates. He waited for the garrison to surrender to his troops. In a short time it was all over, Damascus was once again under "Frankish" occupation, after almost seven centuries.

The Guru, before even settling into his office in the government building, demanded that the city's qadi be brought before him. Immediately, a venerable old man appeared. "Take me now to the tomb of Saladin," he said in the tone befitting a leader of an occupying army.

In a quarter of an hour, the Guru was standing in front of the tomb of the greatest hero of the Muslim world. The tomb of the man who had driven out the Crusaders.

The Guru, without caring about the Arabs who had gathered in the Medina and were watching him, made sure that his words were heard: "We have returned, Saladin, you never expelled us. This is the victory of Christianity over the barbarity of the crescent." [They (the usa and the rest of ukusa agreement states and the greek state) themselves and as clearly from any point of view seems continuers of their predecessors of the third nazi (germanic then) reich formation, and they themselves as and from any point of view clearly seems that from decades now (since 1974-1975 and onwards) are the nowadays fourth nazi, illegal, criminal, murderous and genocidal nazi murderous, parasitic (echelon this time) reich formation, but and from the view that they and as from enough points of view seems to be and the contemporary crusaders of the old age crusaders, they for sure are and the lasts of their nazi (and crusades) kind ever. The, of their creation really great and great warriors, the "mighty human" warriors, like really great that they are created to be, are all they from their creation and against illegalities and against the criminal, murderous, and genocidal nazi murderous, nazi formations, as and against any kind of murderous and genocidal bloodthirst crusades, and of course they (and one of all them and the first of all them and progenitor of all the "mighty humans" and me) will impose against to all of the fourth nazi, illegal, criminal, nazi genocidal murderous, parasitic (echelon this time) reich formation, their punishment, and wherever necessary and to the extent necessary and against to the whole nazi criminal parasitic echelon conspiracy their punishment]

Two photos of two in-power forces of capabilities to born units of the "mighty human" Division "Saladin"

This is the most characteristic depiction of futured "mighty human" warrior of the Division "Saladin" could find on internet. The like me Planck energy emit, energetical beasts "mighty human" ultimate warriors of the Division "Saladin"

And as regard of interplanetary missions of the Division "Saladin" I am thinking that it will be enough in full armory and in parade formation the Division to appear through its commander in person in any other planet's (similar UN) planetary organization as representatives of Earth's UN organization, so that the Earth in peace to make productive peaceful and equal member alliances.

Saladin: The Muslim who crushed the Crusaders

Saladin was one of the greatest figures of the medieval world.

Saladin or Saladin was born in 1138 in Tikrit, Mesopotamia, in present-day Iraq. He was of Kurdish origin. (α)

His real name was Salah al-Din Yusuf Ibn Ayyub, meaning Virtue of Faith, Joseph, son of Job. His family had settled there by migrating from Armenia.

Information about his early years is incomplete and confusing. According to the most widespread view, when he was just one year old, his father Nazmaddin, along with his uncle Shirkuh, migrated again and settled first in Mosul and then in Aleppo, Syria.

- α) As I have said I am not the Saladin, I was born in Agrinio City, Greece, I have of course Provenance of whole the Earth, but and I have origine and from areas of Kravara a mountainous and inaccessible areas of Nafpaktia and from lowland Aitolia, Greece.
- b) He have deep belief to God, for himself the Saladin with the way that the Islam commands, and of course and his deep belief to God, was the main element that help him to become and to be a great human and a great warrior.

There, Saladin's father and uncle entered the service of the city's ruler, Imad ad-Din Zangi, who appointed them as guards at the castle of Baalbek. In 1146, Zangi died and was succeeded as emir by Nur ad-Din, another great figure of medieval Islam.

(b) Saladin, a young boy at the time, was sent by his father to a seminary and devoted himself to the study of the Koran. At the same time, he also studied Greek letters, Euclid's geometry and mathematics, as well as law. He showed particular interest in studying the works of the Greek geographer Ptolemy. He also loved poetry.

His inclination towards the study of the Quran also indicated his future development. However, events were not to unfold that way. This intellectual young man would develop into one of the greatest politicians and soldiers of his time.

Soldier

Alongside his education, Saladin had of course also received military training, as the scion of a noble family. His main instructor was his uncle Shirkuh.

Saladin owes it to him that the great change in his life occurred. In 1163, Muslim Egypt was in the throes of civil war, between supporters of the Fatimid Caliphate and rival factions seeking to claim the throne of wealthy Egypt for themselves.

The caliph's grand vizier, Sawar, was hunted and fled Egypt and took refuge in Aleppo, at the court of Nureddin.

The deposed leader sought the help of Nur ad-Din, who agreed to help and in 1164 sent an expeditionary force to Egypt. It was led by Shirkuh, who took with him the then 26-year-old Saladin. The operation was successful and Sawar regained his throne, in the name of the caliph.

But Sawar backed down and refused to fulfill the obligations he had undertaken towards Nur ad-Din. He even demanded that Shirkuh immediately leave Egyptian territory and did not hesitate to ally himself even with the Crusaders of the Kingdom of Jerusalem to further pressure the situation. Saladin generally had little involvement in these operations.

His uncle assigned him to gather supplies in the small town of Bilpays, against which the combined forces of Shawar and the King of Jerusalem, Amalric I, were marching. The city eventually fell before Saladin could reinforce it.

After this success, the allies Sawar and Amalric marched against Shirkuh's army. The great battle was fought west of Giza. Saladin had been given command of the right wing of the army by his uncle. The battle began with a rush of the western knights against Saladin's wing.

He then pretended to flee, based on the orders he had from his uncle, and the Franks, led by Hugh of Caesarea, pursued him relentlessly.

With the left flank of the allied army in complete disarray due to the pursuit, Shirkuh attacked the enemy center, which was made up of Sawar's troops, while sending other divisions to strike the Franks from the exposed flank.

The latter, in order not to be surrounded, began to retreat. Then Saladin also attacked, striking the enemy in the rear and capturing Hugo. After a fierce battle, the more numerous army of the allies was defeated and dispersed. The victors entered Alexandria in triumph, where they were received as liberators.

The defeated, however, quickly rallied and, taking advantage of their numerical superiority, decided to besiege Alexandria. Shirkuh then decided to leave Saladin behind with part of the army and himself to retreat towards Syria, to cover the possessions of the ruler of Nur ad-Din.

Saladin therefore remained in Alexandria and received from Nureddin the official title of governor of the city, in his own name.

The battles against Sawar and Amalric continued until 1169, when Saladin managed to defeat Sawar. A few months later, Shirkuh also died, and Caliph al-Adid appointed Saladin as governor of Egypt on 26 March.

The decision to elect Saladin, a Sunni Muslim, to rule Shiite Egypt, at the time, may have concealed an ulterior motive on the part of the caliph, since according to contemporary sources – specifically the Arab historian Ibn al-Athir – his advisors told him that there was no one more inexperienced and weaker to govern than Saladin and therefore more incapable of claiming for himself, or for his ruler Nur ad-Din, the rich Egypt. According to other sources, however, Saladin was placed in this position after pressure from the leaders of the army, to whom he had already become beloved.

Saladin, now 31 years old, had already emerged as the second most powerful man in the Islamic world, after Nureddin, who had not looked favorably on the rapid rise of his former emir. Despite this, Saladin remained loyal to Nureddin. However, the situation had become very dangerous for Saladin in Egypt.

In August 1169, Munamin al-Khilafah, the caliph's man in Egypt, attempted to assassinate him. Saladin was saved thanks to the excellent intelligence network he had established that alerted him to the impending attempt. The day after the unsuccessful attempt, however, the Egyptian troops, led by emirs trusted by the caliph, mutinied.

Saladin found himself in an extremely difficult position, but by August 23 he managed to crush the rebellion, bloodily but decisively.

However, the problem of the Franks remained, who attempted to conquer Egypt, but were defeated at Damietta by Saladin, who was also reinforced by Nur ad-Din. This new success consolidated his position. In the spring of 1170, Nur ad-Din sent his father Saladin to Egypt with the aim of jointly strengthening the claimant to the caliphate al-Mustanji, against their common enemy al-Antid.

Meanwhile, Saladin further consolidated his position in Egypt, placing men he trusted in key positions and utilizing the country's wealth to build a powerful army. At the same time, he attempted and succeeded in converting Egypt from Shiite to Sunni.

Holy War – Civil War

With his rear secured, Saladin was now in a position to attack the Franks of Jerusalem, since he had never forgotten that they had been unjustly arrayed against him. So in 1170 he set out with his army, first targeting the city of Darum, in the present-day Gaza Strip. The city was an outpost of the Kingdom of Jerusalem on the border with Egypt.

Amalric immediately ordered the Templar knights guarding the city of Gaza to rush to Darum and reinforce the garrison there.

Saladin, however, had a surprise for them. Leaving a small force at Darum, he marched his army against the now poorly defended Gaza and captured it by storm, except for its citadel. When the castle's garrison refused to surrender, Saladin, in one of the few displays of anger in his life, ordered the city to be razed. Many of the city's inhabitants were massacred.

Leaving Gaza, Saladin moved towards Eilat, the fortress city on the Red Sea coast, in the Gulf of Aqaba. The city was captured, as was its fortress built on a small island, cutting the Franks off from this important trade route.

After this successful first clash with the Crusaders, Saladin returned to Egypt to finally end the issue of the caliphate, in collaboration with Nur ad-Din. Al-Adid, having been left without support, was killed and al-Mustanji was installed in his place on 18 September 1171.

Having definitively neutralized any suspicion of reaction against him, he was ready to attempt a new attack against the Crusaders, this time in collaboration with Nur ad-Din. Saladin would attack the castles of Kerak and Montreal, and Nur ad-Din would march from Syria against the northern castles of the Kingdom of Jerusalem.

However, from the information he had, he concluded that Nureddin did not only wish to neutralize the Kingdom of Jerusalem, but also himself. Not wishing to provoke a civil war, he preferred to withdraw to the Egyptian borders.

His retreat, however, was later used politically by Nureddin. Saladin, however, managed to appease him with rich benefits.

For the next two years, Saladin was busy repelling invasions from Sudan. He managed to repel them and even brought Yemen under his control. During this time, however, he was shocked by the death of his father, but he did not have much time to mourn.

To appease Nur ad-Din, he decided to go to Damascus himself with his army and present before him the finest works of art in the East, along with money, rare animals, elephants and many other gifts. The total value of the jewels and works of art he offered Nur ad-Din was estimated by historians of the time at 60,000 dinars. Marching towards Damascus, he also found the opportunity to plunder the lands of the Kingdom of Jerusalem, through which he was passing.

Nevertheless, Nur ad-Din began intensive preparations to crush Saladin. However, he did not have time to attack, as he died on 15 May 1174.

He was succeeded by his 11-year-old son Ismail al-Salih. The death of the great Nur ad-Din opened the way for Saladin to take over. Although he declared his allegiance to Nur ad-Din's young successor, it was clear that only he was capable of ruling the Islamic world.

He soon dominated Syria, taking advantage of the dispute between al-Saliq's courtiers and the army commanders, who apparently did not wish to be ruled by a child, or by those who were hiding behind them. So, at the invitation of Nureddin's army, Saladin went to Damascus with only 700 men and was received enthusiastically by soldiers and residents.

Al-Shalik was confined to Aleppo. However, Saladin soon found himself forced to attack the city, after the city's military commander rebelled against him. Al-Shalik sided with him, more out of fear.

The rebel commander Gumushting, unable to face Saladin, closed himself in the strong walls of the city. However, he came into contact with the leader of the Assassins, the first one could be called a "terrorist" company, Rashid ad Din Sinan with the aim of assassinating Saladin. He therefore sent 13 of his men to Saladin's camp with the aim of assassinating him.

These men, without arousing suspicion, enlisted as soldiers and for a time served normally, preparing their attack.

Once again, his excellent "intelligence" saved Saladin. The conspiracy was uncovered and the Assassins were executed. However, Saladin's problems intensified, as Raymond, Count of Tripoli, apparently in collusion with the rebels in Aleppo, prepared to attack him. Saladin, however, caught up with him and, by reinforcing the border fortresses, finally prevented the attack.

Unperturbed, he conquered the remaining Syrian cities that resisted him, but he did not dare to attack Aleppo, mainly to avoid confirming the propaganda of his opponents who accused him of having taken up arms against its legitimate overlord al-Shalik. Instead, arguing that he had marched into Syria to save it from the Crusaders, Saladin went so far as to lift the siege of the city, marching towards the Crusader-controlled Hama. The Crusaders retreated without a fight, leaving Saladin in command.

But then a new threat emerged. It was the emir of Mosul, Saif al-Din, who, taking advantage of the uprising in Aleppo, emerged as a claimant to Nureddin's inheritance. After gathering a large army, Saif al-Din marched towards Aleppo, where he was enthusiastically received by the rebels.

The combined armies of his opponents then marched towards Hama, where Saladin was stationed with much smaller forces. Realizing the superiority of his opponents, Saladin attempted to come to a compromise with them, ceding all his possessions north of Damascus. But they refused to negotiate. Saladin had no other choice. He had to fight.

On April 13, 1175, on the banks of the Orontes River, not far from the historic battlefield of Kadesh, the two opposing armies met. Saladin had positioned his army on advantageous terrain, having a full view of the enemy's formation. His opponents, arrogantly superior in numbers, attacked first, confident of victory.

But they were counting without Saladin. The now experienced military leader let the enemy advance and suddenly launched an attack with selected cavalry units on both flanks of his line, leaving his own center extremely weak, in a copy of Miltiades' maneuver at Marathon. Here too, the maneuver was crowned with complete success.

Saladin's veteran cavalrymen crushed the enemy's flanks and surrounded much of the opposing army. Thousands of Sayf al-Din's soldiers fell in the battle.

The miserable remnants of his army fled to Aleppo, but, unable to resist any longer, they accepted Saladin's terms and recognized him as king. Shortly afterwards, the caliph conferred on him the title of sultan.

Saladin ordered that al-Saliq's name be removed from Friday prayers and his name was removed from coins. Saif al-Din, however, did not surrender. He attempted another battle but was again defeated and narrowly escaped death.

But in Aleppo, despite the agreement, al-Saliq's followers again closed the gates to Saladin, sparking a new rebellion. Perhaps Saladin would not have attempted a new siege of Aleppo if he had not received a new assassination attempt against him from an Assassin.

Saladin was sitting in his tent when the Assassin's knife struck him hard, but fortunately for him it struck his helmet and did not hurt him. The assassin was quickly killed by the guards, but the incident convinced Saladin that he had to end it with Aleppo.

Indeed, his appearance before the city with a strong army convinced the besieged to cease resistance, under conditions. Thus, Saladin recognized Aleppo as an independent, albeit vassal, principality, making al-Salih his ally. In a similar way, he managed to reconcile with the Assassins, after a military demonstration against them. He had achieved the impossible. He had united the Arab world, combining the sword with wisdom.

The peak of triumph

In 1185, the Kingdom of Jerusalem had agreed to a four-year ceasefire with Saladin. Of course, both sides made "minor violations" of the agreement many times. However, in the winter of 1187, an event occurred that changed the course of events. Saladin, having studied the strategic situation as it had developed in the region, had long been preparing to attack the weakened Latins in order to deal them a crushing blow. Until then, he had limited himself to operations that strengthened his strategic position in the area.

Taking advantage of the attack of a Latin force, under Raynald of Chatillon, against a caravan of Muslim pilgrims, the sultan declared war, determined to definitively crush the Christian forces. To this end, from March 1187, the sultan ordered the gathering of large forces, declaring Jihad, the holy war against the "infidels".

The exact number of men Saladin had at the Battle of Hattin is not known. According to sources, the strength of his army was close to 45,000 men. Against these forces, the King of Jerusalem Guy managed, by stripping the castles and cities of their garrisons, to gather about 20,000 fighters. Of these, about 1,200 were knights, 15,000 were infantry, and the remaining 4,000 were lightly armed cavalry.

By mid-June 1187, both sides had gathered their forces. On June 26, the Muslim army encamped on the now famous Golan Heights, just 10 km from the border. The next day, it crossed the border and entered Christian territory.

By 2 July, the Muslim army had captured the city of Tiberias after a siege of just one day. However, it had not captured the city's citadel.

Cavalry reconnaissance units were advanced to the fort of Sapfor, about 15 km from the main defensive positions, to spy on the Christian army concentrated there.

The Christian army was on its way before the hot sun rose from the East. King Guy divided his forces into three columns and the march began. Saladin was informed by his scouts of the enemy's movements, a few hours after the Christian army began its march.

He immediately ordered fast-moving units of horse archers to follow and harass the enemy without seriously engaging him. Under these conditions, continuing the march towards Tiberias was impossible. Count Raymond then suggested to King Guy that the army turn towards Hattin, which was only 6 km away. There was water there and the soldiers could rest.

The suggestion was accepted and the army began to move towards Hattin. However, the maneuver was carried out so uncoordinated that confusion prevailed in the army and valuable time was lost. Saladin, from his position on the heights of Kafarset, saw the change of course of his opponents and understood their intentions.

To completely cut them off from the life-giving water, he sent a strong body under Taqi al-Din, which overtook the slow-moving crusaders and captured the roads to Hattin. At the same time, another part of it, under Muzaffar, attacked the Christian rearguard, in order to trap it. And he succeeded. Alarmed, King Guy ordered the army to stop and encamp in the positions it occupied. It was the worst that could happen.

During the night, Saladin's army surrounded the Crusaders from all sides. His men took up positions for the upcoming battle the next morning.

Throughout the night, supplies and arrows were distributed to the men who were working feverishly. Saladin's infantry gathered timber from the surrounding area and placed it along the likely axis of escape of the Christian army. If Guy's men tried to escape, they would set fire to the wood and trap them between their flames and arrows. A similar barrier was also developed along the likely axis of advance of the Christian army.

Dawn had not yet dawned when the order to continue the march was given to the Christian army. The Muslims initially did not react. Saladin waited for the enemies to express their intentions first. He did not know whether his opponents would move towards the village of Hattin or whether they would attempt a surprise attack on his positions. That is why he decided to wait.

King Guy finally ordered the army to move towards Hattin. The more experienced knights understood that this order was a harbinger of disaster. Some, in their despair, even defected to Saladin and described to him the desperate situation of their former comrades.

Saladin wasted no time. He ordered the units under Muzaffar to attack the enemy. At the same time, his men were setting the first fire to the piled firewood. The Christian army, meanwhile, was trying in vain to cover the 6 km that separated it from Hattin and the precious water. Its rearguard was again subjected to strong enemy pressure and was forced to stop and fight.

The Knights Templar, who constituted the most elite body of the rearguard, counterattacked. However, they were unable to overcome their numerically superior opponents and fled within the protective square formed by their infantry.

In the vanguard, Count Raymond also tried with continuous attacks to open a way for the army, through the dense enemy lines. This attack of the Christians was also repelled. The smoke from the fires that Saladin's men had lit was so thick that in some cases even visual contact between the three Christian bodies was lost.

The situation was gradually becoming hopeless for the Latins. Count Raymond was one of the few who maintained his composure. He rallied his men and launched a well-coordinated, yet desperate, assault on the enemy.

Saladin's disciplined men did not attempt, as they were ordered, to stop Raymond's men. They let them cross their lines and then formed a new front heading north to prevent their return. Saladin was not interested in Raymond. He wanted King Guy.

The rest of the Christian army began to disintegrate in the meantime. The infantry abandoned the cavalry and headed for a cluster of two low hills known as the "Horns of Hattin". Many knights, whose horses had been killed, also fled alongside them. Those knights who still had horses attempted to break through the encirclement. Without the support of their infantry, however, they were repulsed.

It was already afternoon. Now the entire Christian army had gathered on the two hills and, surrounded by the enemy, put up a desperate resistance. At that moment, in a raid by the Muslim cavalry, the bishop of Acre was killed and the Holy Cross fell into the hands of the infidels.

Soon, those of the infantry who had not been killed simply laid down their arms. But Guy's knights had not said their last word. Mobilizing whatever physical and moral reserves they had left, they attacked the enemy positions twice, intending not to escape death, but to take Saladin with them!

In the second assault, the knights in particular, came within a few meters of the sultan, forcing him, although victorious, to seek refuge in the rear in shame. But this was the swan song of the chivalry of Jerusalem. Having exhausted their strength, the knights, together with their king, laid down their weapons at the feet of the victors.

Saladin appeared majestic in his victory. He called the defeated lords to his tent and offered them water. This gesture had symbolic significance as, according to Muslim customs, it meant that he was giving them life. Only Raynald of Chatillon was not allowed by Saladin to drink. He was considered responsible for the attack on the caravan of pilgrims to Mecca the previous winter and was executed. Saladin also showed no mercy to the knights of the Orders of Saint John and the Temple, as they were experienced warriors.

Saladin's victory at Hattin was crucial, as it marked the turning point of Latin power in the region. Until then, the Westerners had usually been the victors. Of course, they had their defeats. But none were as devastating as that of Hattin. In one day, almost the entire Christian army of the Kingdom was lost. The Latins never recovered from this blow.

Although they were later strengthened in men and "personalities", the Latins of the East were never able to challenge Muslim primacy in the region. Jerusalem was temporarily recaptured in 1228 by the German Emperor Frederick, during the Sixth Crusade.

But it was lost for good the following year. The Latin states in the East lasted until the 14th century. But never after Hattin did the Christians regain the initiative of the movements, not even when Richard the Lionheart defeated Saladin at Arsuf in 1191.

The Saladin of legend

Saladin was loved even by his opponents, even by his non-Christian subjects, Orthodox, Jewish, Catholic. He was never fanatical or intolerant. He never refused to help anyone, regardless of their faith.

On very few occasions did he lose his temper and consciously disregard human life. His friendship with his great rival Richard the Lionheart, whom he met only once, remained proverbial. Even when he conquered Jerusalem, he respected all its inhabitants, unlike the Crusaders, who, when they captured the city in 1099, massacred Muslims, Jews, and Orthodox Christians indiscriminately.

He was even praised by the troubadours and poets of the dark medieval Europe and many legends, usually based on real events, have been circulating since that time. All the testimonies of the Westerners presented him as a real knight. Dozens of incidents are mentioned that fully justify his fame.

In April 1191, a three-month-old child was kidnapped from his Catholic mother. The other Franks immediately summoned the inconsolable mother to personally seek justice from Saladin. Indeed, the simple woman of the people, and a woman of foreign faith, appeared before the sultan.

Saladin received her hospitably, as he did everyone else. When he learned of her child's abduction, he immediately set his famous "intelligence service" in motion. Soon, the kidnapped child was discovered.

Without saying anything, Saladin himself paid the ransom to the kidnappers, took the child back, and handed him over to his mother. When she joyfully took him into her arms and nursed him, the powerful sultan shed a tear in emotion. Then he gave her a horse and provisions for the journey, and let her go. This scene is described by the Arab historian Ibn Sadat and is also confirmed by Christian witnesses.

However generous he was, he could not forgive the notorious Raynald of Chatillon, one of the leaders of the Christian army that was destroyed at Hattin in 1187. Raynald, in addition to being responsible for the massacres of thousands of civilians, was also the one who violated the treaties between Saladin and the Kingdom of Jerusalem.

Consequently, he was not just a murderer, but also a sworn enemy. Saladin himself slaughtered him in his tent, violating for the first and only time the sacred law of hospitality.

Today, Saladin's name remains legendary. Especially in the Islamic world, he is considered the greatest hero of Islam, and rightly so. Even his symbol, the eagle, has been adopted by many Arab nations.

However, what modern Arabs have unfortunately not managed to make their great leader's property is his tolerance, his tolerance towards what is different, his respect for human life, both of his own people and even of his enemies.

The great king, ready to die, ordered, according to legend, his soldiers, with a shroud hanging from a pole, to roam the streets of the cities he ruled and shout: "Our master, who ruled so many kingdoms and ruled so many countries, the conqueror of Jerusalem, dies today and rules over nothing but this shroud!"

Saladin embodied the model of bravery, magnanimity, wisdom and strategic genius in years when cruelty, intolerance and savagery were an established phenomenon among the peoples of the time.

The 12th century was marked by wars in the name of Christ and Saladin remained in History as the leader of the Muslims who respected the Christians. In summary: Saladin was the founder of the Ayyubid dynasty (a Muslim dynasty of Kurdish origin, centered in Egypt); he was the first sultan of Egypt and Syria and the leader who united the Muslim world against the greedy enemy: the forces of the Crusaders of Europe. Saladin recaptured Jerusalem from the Crusaders in 1187, bringing the Second Crusade to an end and marking the beginning of the Third. The powerful kings of Europe, including Richard the Lionheart, headed to the Holy Land to reclaim the city.

Generous and gentle

Saladin is remembered as a great military leader and a prominent figure of his time. The West, despite the fact that he fought against the Crusaders, recognized him for his nobility and justice. "I want to take Jerusalem, as the Christians took it from the Muslims," he had said almost a century after the Crusaders' presence in the Holy City, and he succeeded.

On October 2, 1187, Jerusalem was surrendered to Saladin, but he did not take it "as the Christians took it"; he did not engage in massacres and plundering, like the Crusaders. He not only spared the lives of the 100,000 Christians who lived in the city, but also guaranteed their safe departure along with their property and belongings. They were even given forty days to prepare for their departure.

And then Richard the Lionheart enters the scene of history. The Third Crusade once again aimed at Jerusalem. It would be led by Richard I of England (Richard the Lionheart), Philip of France, and the Holy Roman Emperor Frederick I, the infamous Barbarossa. Three years of battles and sieges followed, led mainly by Richard the Lionheart, with scattered truces between the two leaders. Richard's forces defeated Saladin at the Battle of Arsuf in 1191 and the Battle of Jaffa in 1192. It is even said that when Richard lost his horse at Arsuf, his opponent immediately sent him an Arabian steed for the English King to ride! And the Third Crusade ended in 1192: the Muslims would retain control of the Holy Land, while allowing Christian pilgrim caravans to have free access to the city. The Christian kingdoms were thus limited to a narrow strip of land along the Mediterranean coast. Saladin was not defeated this time either, but he died peacefully in his bed of typhus that year, in 1193.

His legend embraced Europe

The spread of the legend of Saladin in Europe is a remarkable story. His brilliant reputation is even more remarkable, since he was certainly the most serious opponent of the Crusaders. After the Third Crusade, Saladin's fame invaded European romanticism and took on the dimensions of a legend. In European texts of the 13th century he is mentioned as a magnanimous and noble leader, a great and pivotal personality and an example of chivalry.

The legend surrounding Saladin's name spread into the late Middle Ages. The victorious Muslim leader who reconquered Jerusalem was praised for his generosity and magnanimity by Dante , the British historian Edward Gibbon , and the author Sir Walter Scott .

Legend has it that when Saladin felt death approaching, he called a trusted servant, gave him a piece of his clothing and ordered him to carry it around the city, shouting: "Our master, who ruled so many kingdoms and ruled so many countries, the conqueror of Jerusalem, dies today and rules over nothing but this shroud"...

Called the Knight of the Crescent Moon, Saladin was a prominent figure among Islamic leaders during the turbulent years of the Crusades. On this day, October 2, 1187, Sultan Saladin rode into Jerusalem after nearly a century of Western rule.

The 12th century was marked by wars in the name of Christ and Saladin remained in History as the leader of the Muslims who respected the Christians.

[From when I was child and lived in my paternal house, across from the bed where I slept, on the wall was a picture of Jesus (my Mother had placed this picture), and on this picture was written and some of his words: That his words in greek (εγώ ειμι το φως του κόσμου, ο ακολουθών εμοι ου μη περιπατήσει εν τη σκοτία αλλ' έχει το φως της ζωής) , and translate in English (me am the light of the world, who follow me will never walk in darkness but will have the light of the life), and from decades ago I chose to follow this nice guy whose name was and always will be Jesus, he had lived and on Earth as divine-human hypostasis and he have said enough more words of course all correct and nice words, me never paraphrase his words, and never accepted to turn against him nor against the God and never will happen to me so, me never will accept to turn against the Jesus nor against the God, I will not going to be (nor me nor no one of my own genus) in no one echelon machines basement and in no one echelon machine never, I was not never (nor me nor no one of my own genus) and I am not never (nor me nor no one of my own genus) in no one echelon machines basements and in no one echelon machine, nor me nor no one of my own genus never, and of course this nice guy the Jesus in no one of his word turned against the Islam nor against the Buddhism nor against no one other religion belief]

Below, in paragraphs (1) and (2), each of which is enclosed in square brackets, I quote in greek and english the interpretations regarding these words of Jesus.

Paragraph (1) [Η φράση «Εγώ ειμι το φως» προέρχεται από την Αγία Γραφή, ειδικά από το Ευαγγέλιο του Ιωάννη (8:12), όπου ο Ιησούς Χριστός δηλώνει: «Εγώ ειμί το φως του κόσμου· όποιος με ακολουθεί, δεν θα περπατήσει στο σκοτάδι, αλλά θα έχει το φως της ζωής», συμβολίζοντας την πνευματική καθοδήγηση, την αλήθεια και τη σωτηρία.

Σημασία:

Πνευματική Καθοδήγηση: Ο Ιησούς προσφέρει φως ενάντια στο «σκοτάδι» της αμαρτίας και της άγνοιας.

Πηγή Ζωής: Αυτό το φως είναι «το φως της ζωής», που οδηγεί στην αιώνια ζωή.

Αλήθεια: Ο Ιωάννης αναφέρει επίσης τον Ιησού ως το «αληθινό φως, που φωτίζει κάθε άνθρωπο που έρχεται στον κόσμο» (Ιωάννης 1:9).

Η δήλωση αυτή είναι κεντρική στο χριστιανικό μήνυμα, τονίζοντας τον Ιησού ως τον μόνο δρόμο προς τη σωτηρία και τη γνώση.

The phrase "I am the light" comes from the Bible, specifically from the Gospel of John (8:12), where Jesus Christ declares: "I am the light of the world; whoever follows me will not walk in darkness, but will have the light of life," symbolizing spiritual guidance, truth, and salvation.

Meaning:

Spiritual Guidance: Jesus offers light against the "darkness" of sin and ignorance.

Source of Life: This light is "the light of life," which leads to eternal life.

Truth: John also refers to Jesus as "the true light that enlightens every man coming into the world" (John 1:9)..

This statement is central to the Christian message, emphasizing Jesus as the only way to salvation and knowledge.]

Paragraph (2) [«Εγώ ειμί το φῶς του κόσμου» (Ιω. θ' 12-13)]

Το κείμενο του Ευαγγελιστή Ιωάννου

12 Πάλιν οὖν αὐτοῖς ὁ Ἰησοῦς ἐλάλησε λέγων· ἐγώ εἰμι τὸ φῶς τοῦ κόσμου· ὁ ἀκολουθῶν ἐμοὶ οὐ μὴ περιπατήσῃ ἐν τῇ σκοτίᾳ, ἀλλ' ἔξει τὸ φῶς τῆς ζωῆς. 13 εἶπον οὖν αὐτῷ οἱ Φαρισαῖοι· σὺ περὶ σεαυτοῦ μαρτυρεῖς· ἡ μαρτυρία σου οὐκ ἔστιν ἀληθής.

Η μετάφραση του κειμένου από τον μακαριστό Ιεραπόστολο Νικόλαο Σωτηρόπουλο

12 Πάλι δέ ο Ιησούς μίλησε σ' αυτούς λέγοντας: «Εγώ είμαι τό φῶς του κόσμου. Όποιος ακολουθεί εμένα, δέν θά περιπατήση στό σκοτάδι, αλλά θά έχη τό ζωντανό φῶς». 13 Του είπαν τότε οι Φαρισαίοι: «Σύ δίνεις μαρτυρία γιά τόν εαυτό σου. Η μαρτυρία σου δέν ισχύει».

The text of John the Evangelist

theology

12 Then spoke Jesus again unto them, saying, I am the light of the world: he that followed me shall not walk in darkness, but shall have the light of life. 13 The Pharisees therefore said unto him, Thou bearest witness of thyself; thy witness is not true.

The translation of the text by the blessed Missionary Nikolaos Sotiropoulos

12 Then Jesus spoke to them again, saying, "I am the light of the world. Whoever follows me will not walk in darkness but will have the light of life." 13 The Pharisees then said to him, "You are testifying about yourself. Your testimony is not true."]

Saladin, the brightest leader and strategic mind of the Islamic world

By Christos Bourazanis October 13, 2022

By Christos Bourazanis,

One of the greatest figures of the Crusades era, and specifically of the Third Crusade, leader of the Islamic camp, was the Sultan of Egypt and Syria Saladin (in Arabic Ṣalāḥ al-Dīn Yūsuf ibn Ayyūb meaning the legitimacy of the faith, Joseph son of Job or the full al-Malik al-Nasir Salah al-Dunya wa'l-Din Abu'l Muzaffar Yusuf Ibn Ayyub Ibn Shadi al-Kurdi). With his victories against the Christian troops at the Battle of Hattin and the capture of Jerusalem, he left a glorious mark on History and an immense legacy in the Islamic world, even earning the respect of many leaders of the Christian kingdoms.

He was born around 1137 in the castle of Takrit in Baghdad, and his father was Ayyūb ibn Shādī, who was the governor of the fortress, as the historian Baha ad-Din ibn Shaddad, the author of Saladin's biography, informs us, whom he knew. Saladin began his involvement in military affairs from a young age and rose to prominence many times, resulting in his promotion to various positions. "He was so capable," says ibn Shaddad, "that every time he was promoted, he proved (by his actions) further reasons for his promotion to a higher position." In the following years, around the 1160s, a campaign was conducted against Egypt by the emir Nūr ad-Dīn Maḥmūd Zengī, one of whose generals was Saladin's uncle, Asad al-Dīn. His nephew, of course, followed suit, and eventually Egypt was completely conquered, and Asad al-Din was appointed vizier in Nur ad-Din's name. In 1169 Saladin immediately succeeded his uncle upon his death, continuing to rule in his superior's name.

During this period, he was particularly concerned with the restoration of Egypt's economy, its development and the strengthening of the army. By 1171, he managed to completely remove the Shiite Fatimid Caliphate, restoring the Sunni doctrine, which ultimately made him the absolute ruler of Egypt. His relations with Nur ad-Din were tense in recent years and would lead to war, but the latter died in 1174, leaving the field free for the ambitious Saladin who declared himself the protector of orthodox Sunnism. His goal now was the expansion and unification of the Near East and Egypt, which he largely succeeded in doing by 1186, consolidating his power as far as Syria and Yemen. His policy was not limited only to military operations, but also to diplomacy, as he spread the idea that only he had the authority to wage a holy war against the Latin Christian states. His recognition by the Caliphate of Baghdad gave him jurisdiction as the sovereign of Egypt, Syria and Yemen, that is, it gave him a superior position among the other Muslim leaders. However, there were also some areas independent of the Shiite doctrine, which challenged his sovereignty, such as the area where the fortress of Masyaf in Syria was located, which belonged to the Assassins organization, who, in fact, twice threatened his life. However, without sitting idle, he plundered the area and besieged this famous stronghold.

The clashes with the Crusaders, although not many, were significant. The most serious began around 1187, when attacks were made by Renaud de Châtillon against the pilgrims of Mecca. On this occasion, he gathered an army and attacked the Crusaders, resulting in the burning of their fleet in the Red Sea. After these events, the King of Jerusalem Guy de Lusignan tried to clash with Saladin at the Battle of Hattin, resulting, however, in the complete defeat of the former.

Later, during the Third Crusade, he suffered defeats, most significantly the loss of Acre, but managed to hold Jerusalem and finally drive the Crusaders away.

The great thing about Saladin is not only his strategic mind and excellent leadership skills, but also his noble spirit, as evidenced by sources of the time, as, as mentioned above, he had earned the respect of even his opponents, especially Richard I the Lionheart of England. The biographer, ibn Shaddad, tells us about his particular religious piety and strict observance of his duties, as well as his education. Specifically, he says: "His faith was good and he had great attention to Almighty God. He took his doctrine from proof through study with the leading men of religious learning and eminent jurists. He understood what one needs to understand, so that, when a dispute occurred in his presence, he could contribute excellent comments, even if these were not in the language of educated specialists. Consequently, he acquired a doctrine free from the contamination of anthropomorphism, but his studies did not delve too deeply to the point of denying divine attributes or falsification. His justice was beyond any other given of the time, he was noble in spirit and treated even his opponents with respect and kept agreements and treaties. His generosity was characteristic, as were his chivalric ideals, as we might say [The Prophet] (may God bless him and grant him peace) said, "When a generous man stumbles, God takes him by the hand." There are [many] hadiths about generosity.

Saladin's generosity was too public to need recording and too famous to need mentioning, yet we will give an indication of it in general terms. He ruled, and when he died, only forty-seven Nasiri silver dirhams and one Tyrian gold coin, the weight of which was unknown to me, were found in his treasure chest. "He gave away entire provinces..." Elsewhere he informs us that he always helped in need, even when someone came to ask him repeatedly, he never said no, so that, in fact, the treasury of his kingdom was forced to "hide" money for emergencies. "In times of scarcity he was generous, just as he would have been in easy circumstances. The employees of the Royal treasury used to hide a certain amount of money from him, as a precaution in case a crisis should surprise them, because they knew that if he found out, he would spend it."

The surrender of Guy de Lusignan's crusader troops to Saladin. Image source: worldhistory.org

Indeed, we learn that he also granted a piece of land to the ruler of Antioch as a sign of peace and friendship, a piece of land that he had recently seized and was now returning. "He received kindly anyone who came to him on a mission, even if he was an infidel. The prince, the ruler of Antioch, visited him in the month of Shawwāl 588 [October 1192], after peace had been made, when he himself was returning from Jerusalem to Damascus. The prince encountered him during his journey and made a request to him. The sultan gave him al-'Amq, which is territory that he had taken from him in the year of the conquest of the coast, that is, 584 [1188]." Through these examples we are able to understand Saladin's complex personality, which was possessed of values, ideals and chivalric ideals, which made him stand out not only in the Islamic world, but also in the rival Christian Europe. He was, therefore, a model leader and general, as he was admired not only in his time, but also in subsequent periods in many ways.

The prince encountered him during his journey and made a request to him. The sultan gave him al-'Amaq, which is territory that he had taken from him in the year of the conquest of the coast, that is, 584 [1188]." Through these examples we are able to understand Saladin's complex personality, which was possessed of values, ideals and chivalric ideals, which made him stand out not only in the Islamic world, but also in the rival Christian Europe. He was, therefore, a model leader and general, as he was admired not only in his time, but also in subsequent periods in many ways.

Who are the Kravara and the Kravarites? The historical name of origin of the people of the untrodden mountains who liberated Greece

by our collaborator, historical researcher Stefanos Milesis

The areas included in the geographical designation "Kravara" mainly identify the mountainous and inaccessible areas of Nafpaktia.

However, we also encounter this geographical designation in other mountainous areas of Greece.

Of all the versions regarding the origin of the designation "Kravara", the most prevalent seems to be the one that is completely identical to the fame and ability that the "Kravarites" acquired in becoming sought-after fighters in the former Evzonian Battalions.

In the Evzonian Battalions

It was no coincidence that the villages of Kravara were the places that supplied the Evzone battalions in the past. The Evzones were then considered the elite units of the Greek army. They were once elite units and their action during the Balkan Wars was catalytic.

They are the ones who fought in Bizani, Kilkis, Dzoumagia, Krishna, Pangaio and many other places.

And just someone's declaration of their origin during enlistment in the Greek Army, that they were from Kravara, was enough to send them directly to the Evzonian Battalions.

As was once the case with the Nepalese Gurkha fighters who were sought after by the British army.

Already in 1914, a special unit of Evzones formed the Palace Guard in recognition of their glorious action.

But how did the Kravaris acquire the reputation of being capable fighters? We must go back in time, even before the beginning of our national independence struggle.

Already from the first armed clashes, the fighters of the Platanos area of Nafpaktia, when they clashed with the Turks, shouted among themselves:

"Kara – hit, Kara – hit the dogs."
It meant hit on the head (kara = head)

This exhortation certainly had to do with the numerical superiority of the Turks. The large number of the opponent, combined with the lack of ammunition, forced the fighters to be careful with their shots.

The best way was to aim for the head to quickly "finish" the opponent. It wasn't long before the martial exhortation (and shout) "kara-varite" characterized those who used it and identified them with it.

(1) At that time the hellenic geographical space was being found under the occupation of the Ottomans of the Ottoman empire and of course there were big rivalries and hostilities between the two sides and there was and very big religious hostility between the two sides, and during the war fights between the two sides, many times and both sides shouting to each other called each other insulting as dogs.

* To note: As I have already mentioned in nowadays the fourth's nazi, illegal, criminal, genocidal nazi murderous, parasitic (echelon this time) reich's formation their illegal, nazi criminally insane, murderous nazi genocidal, harmful parasitic echelon machines basements together with the illegals, nazi criminal parasites, genocidal nazi happy murderers or my own infants greek people, both them many times they have called me and my own genus pejorative and insulting as dogs, "gays", goofy's.

Soon the designation "Kravareites" was born for the fighters of that region.

But apart from the Kravarites' ability to throw directly at the head, their upbringing in the treacherous, inaccessible mountains trained them from childhood to run on the ridges, truly wild goats.

They had the ability to run where others couldn't even walk.

The Kravarites sang later (from 1913) in the Evzonian battalions "I am a swift Evzonian/honored in the world/who is a rascal, who is a scoundrel/can stand before me" (Music/Lyrics: Sakellaridis Theophrastos/Tsokopoulos Giorgos & Anninos Babis).

The song resonated with the Kravarites of the Evzon battalions as they were aware of their ability to move comfortably on difficult mountain paths.

Where "disteges" was the well-dressed and well-mannered young man, while "kourabie" was the name given at that time to today's "plugs", that is, those who, through the mediation of third parties, managed to serve in the rear.

The Battle of Kresna in which the Evzonian battalions distinguished themselves

Barren land

In addition, enlistment in the Evzonian battalions during the Balkan Wars of 1912-13 was widespread among the Kravarites. On the one hand, they wished to continue their ancestral tradition. On the other hand, because the land of mountainous Nafpaktia was barren and unsuitable for cultivation.

The jobs that the residents of the area could undertake are minimal.

I'm not from Kravara either...

However, the periods of military confrontations eventually ended and the Kravarites could hardly return to their mountainous homeland.

Their contribution to wars, their ability to run like "wild goats" across the deserted mountains, and their war cry were soon forgotten.

(2) The tribe of "kravarites" is one of the two of my own biological origin sides (from my Mother's side).

I want only to make a note: that I am not included in the tribe of "kravarites", I am the first and the progenitor of my own genus - the "mighty human" genus "who" is my own genus - my own tribe, and that "who" my own genus they will never forget the martial and main part of their creation by Mother Nature, as the universe is limitless with unlimited possibilities for expansion and with immeasurable asymmetric threats and dangers to pending/lurking in many places of the universe, they must be constantly in war readiness and continuous combat training.

The only thing that has remained in the collective memory, perhaps even to this day, is that the designation "Kravara" means untrodden mountain ranges, which ensure isolation and consequently distance from the social reality of urban centers.

Hence the answer "... I'm not from Kravara either" which means I understand what you're referring to, I don't live far from social reality.

Kravara

The name Kravara or Kravari was formerly used to refer to a location in the former province of Nafpaktia , in the Prefecture of Aitolioakarnania , which included the following 10 villages: Kryoneria, Avorani (present-day name: Livadaki), Arachova , Achladokastro (Artotiva), Kydonia (Zilista), Klepa , Neochorio , Platanos , Perdikovrysi (Sinista), Kalloni (Stromiani) and Grammeni Oxia (Sitista).^{[1][2]}

My Mother's village of origin.

Historical data

Kravara is considered by some scholars to be the region of Aetolia where the Ozolei or Esperioi Locrii lived in antiquity .^{[1][3]} Strabo and Pausanias mention that the area was inhabited by the Apodoi and Ophionei whose lands were united with Aetolia and formed the Aetolia Acquired. During the period of the Roman and Byzantine Empires and after the establishment of the Despotate of Epirus, there is no mention of the name Kravara.

The first historical reference is in 1454 - 1455 as Kravari (Kiravar İli) a province of the Trikala satzaki in the Trikala vilayet , where in the Ottoman tax register MM10 the taxes of 50 settlements (with 500 families, 90 single men and 31 widows) are noted: Arachova (Pentakorfon), Koutoulista (Kryoneria) , Neochori , Senati, Pera Lobotina (Ano Chora), Lobotina, Voitsa (Elatovrysi), Kydonia, Limnitsa , Nisvari (Kokkinohori) , Chrysovo (Chrysovo) , Asprias (Aspria), Amorgiani/Asprogianni (Katafygi) , Andrivista (Kentri) , Kozitsa (Ambelakiotissa), Delga (Gavros), Granitsa (Anthofyton), Lefteriani (Eleftheriani) , Chomori (Chomori) , Birbiani , Koniska (Koniska) , Kara, Ternos (Mesokomi Evrytania), Terpitsa (Diplatanon), Paloukova (Mandrini) , Podos , Ampliani Evrytania , Avorani (Livadaki) , Kato Avorani, Perista , Prilokos (;), Artotiva (Achladokastron), Platanos , Tirovitsa, Vonorta (Kato Platanos) , Stranoma (Stranoma) , Haikali, Simou (Simos) , Velvitsena (Paliopyrgos) , Dimonassa, Pokista , Klepa , Ternova (Dendrochori) , Zilista (Kydonia) , Strominiani (Kalloni) , Alikorena, Grigori (Grigori) , Epano Grigori, Vitolista (Terpsithea) , Eletsou (Elatou) and the arable lands: Tirna, Gero-Prifti, Sinista and Pal(i)olugova. The taxes of the Kravar region were intended for the salary of the four descendants of Kravar (Kiravar), Karolos, Karatzas, Musa and Mikropetra who served in the Ottoman cavalry (spahids).^{[4][5]}

The name Kravara is mentioned in 1806 in the appointment of chieftains for the armatolikia by Ali Pasha of Ioannina, where he defines the Venetian and the Apokoronas provinces as belonging to the Vlach armatolikia, and Kravara as part of the Karpenisi region .^[6] Nikolaos Kasomoulis makes frequent references to Kravara and its villages during the period of 1821.^{[7][8]} During the period of Turkish rule , the villages of the Kravara region are also referred to as "Vlachohoria" or "Kleftochoria" , especially the villages of the municipality of Ofionia . The inaccessible and steep terrain of the area was an ideal place for the dens of thieves . During the reign of Kapodistrias , and in the first administrative division of Greece, Kravara was a separate administrative region - province.^[9] This ceased to be the case during the reign of King Otto .^[10] In 1854 , Aravantinos refers to Kravary, perhaps Karivary, an area with 8 villages of 4,000 inhabitants in Nafpaktia, in the prefecture of Aetolia and Acarnania .^[1] The French philhellene and traveler François Poqueville reports:

"The Kravari region is the last part of the Aetolian slope its mountains rise to the north of the Venetian region"

— F. Pouquevill, Voyage de la Grece , Vol. 4, book X, chap. VII, pp. 31-33. ^[11] and provides a relevant table with 63 villages in the area along with the number of families that inhabited them at that time.

Designation

Regarding the origin of the name, there is relative ambiguity and different justifications ^[12] . As already mentioned, based on the Ottoman tax register of 1454-1455, the tax revenues of the region were intended for the salary of four timariots, descendants of Kravaris (Ḳiravar İli), whose origin is unclear. The name itself seems related to the Slavic "kravar" (кравар) which means "booforvo"; however, the name of one of his sons ("Mourikis") indicates a possible Albanian origin. As a toponym, it is also found in other regions of the Balkan Peninsula, while at the local level it is often derived from the words kara barite, considered a war cry that the Greeks made when rushing against their enemies.

Thieves, chieftains and fighters of '21

The thieves, chieftains and fighters of '21 from the Kravara region mentioned are:

- Kitsos of the demotic tradition, who came from Kleftochoria, was captured by the Turks, tortured and died in Strominiani (present-day Kalloni). ^[13]
- the well-known hero of 1821, Georgios Karaiskakis, originally from Styliia.
- Kostas Sismanis, from Klepa, Aitolokarnania, participated in the Orlofika in 1770 and rebelled against the Turks of Nafpaktia. ^[14]
- Panos Sotiropoulos, a Lagoumitzian originally from Ano Chora , called "the hero of Kleisouva". He took part in the siege of Messolonghi and was killed with Karaiskakis in the Battle of Piraeus in March 1827. ^[15]
- the monk Damianos (with secular name Dimitris Tsounopoulos), ^[16] originally from Kryoneria (Koutolistia) ^[12] . In 1818 he was initiated into the Filiki Etaria by Patriarch Gregory V in Constantinople and upon returning initiated many from the areas of Dorida , Trichonida, Messolonghi , etc. With the beginning of the revolution in 1821 he formed an armed unit of Kravarites and died together with Bishop Rogon Iosif in the explosion of the powder magazine of Messolonghi on 10 April 1826 . ^[17]

*Kitsu's mother was sitting on the edge of the river,
He argued with the river and threw stones at it.*

My river, for it is too narrow, my river, turn back,

So that I can cross over to the other side, over to the Thieves' Villages.

Where the thieves gather and all the captains.

Folk song - Mich. Peranthi , Poetry Anthology , vol. 3, p. 641.

Battles during the Turkish occupation and '21

During the period of Turkish rule and the revolution of 1821, several battles and clashes between Greeks and Turks are reported in the area of Kravara ^[12] .

*Venetian and Kravari, who has a captain?
to go out to chew the chariots, to practice bayrakki, to fight the Turks and Mahmud Sultan.*

- 1767 in the village of Kerasovo, Yannis Boukouvalas with Mourts Houstos, grandfather of Ali Pasha ^[12].
- 1794 at the saddle of Grammeni Oxya, the Kontogiannai fought against Yusuf Arabis sent by Mahmut Pasha. The fighting continued at the monastery of Stagia, near the sources of the Evinos River. ^[12]
- Between 1810 and 1815 at the location of Haratsi, between the villages of Grigori, Elatovrisi (Voitsa), Elato and Ano Chora, where almost all the Turkish soldiers accompanying the Turkish tax collector who was in charge of collecting taxes from the residents of the area were exterminated ^[13].
- 1823 the battle of Ampliani, Panourgias, Skaltsas and Souliotes against numerous Turks.
- In September 1828, a siege began in the village of Lobotina, today's Ano Chora, by Greeks led by the Souliote Kitso Tzavellas. This was followed by an exodus of the Turks led by the Turk-Albanian Ahmet Debrevista, and finally a battle took place on October 22 at the Mermigaria position, resulting in 500 dead Turks and 80 prisoners ^[12].

Georgios Athanas, Songs of the Mountains, p. 159.

Folklore

According to an older custom, some of the Kravarites resorted to begging with various tricks, pretending to be disabled, in order to gain people's pity. Most commonly, they twisted their limbs, arms or legs, from a young age or pretended to be blind, coming from various parts of Greece, and even abroad. ^[1]

Expressions

In the past, the most common popular expression to characterize an uncivilized person was "he is from the Graves", which was also rendered with a question mark in the 2nd person.

Slaine

Introducing Slaine

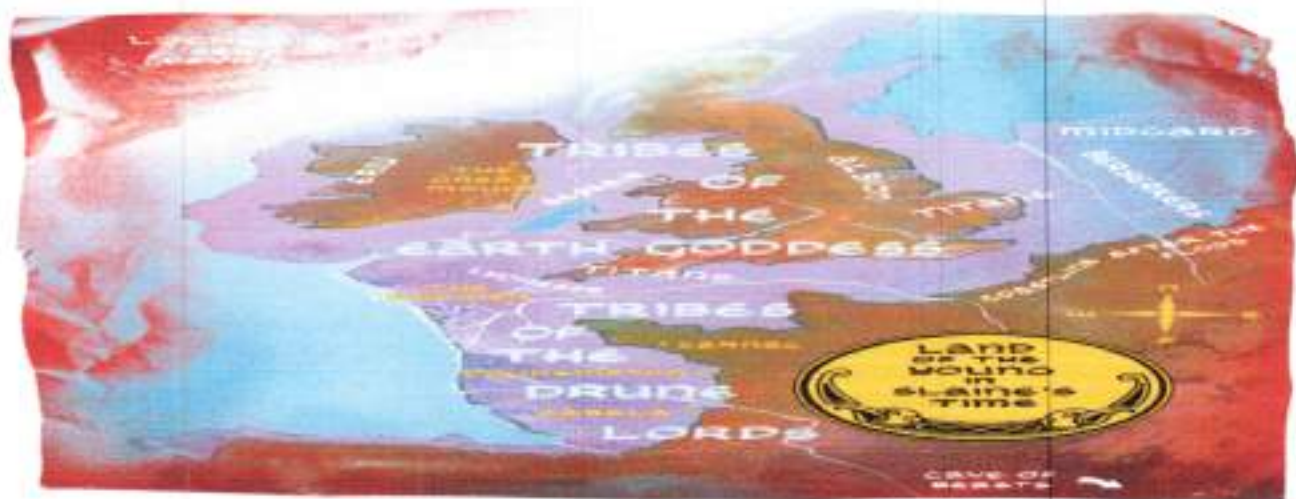

Hailing from the mystical past realm of Tír na nÓg, Slaine mac Roth is a Celtic Barbarian, part of the Sessair Tribe. After being banished from his tribe, he travels the land as a lone wanderer, encountering dragons, monsters, dwarves and witches as he journeys through the world. He isn't completely alone in his travels, however: not only does he carry a huge axe which he nicknames "Brainbiter", but he also has mastery of "the warp spasm"! This primal force flows straight from the Earth into his body, warping his physical appearance and turning him into a hulking warrior.

Created by the then-married creative team of 2000 AD Creator Pat Mills and artist Angela Kincaid in 1983, Slaine has lived through many lives, his journey taking him from lone wanderer to High King of Ireland! One of 2000 AD's most enduring and loved characters, he has been the centre for many of the greatest stories in the Prog's history!

Slaine

Tír na nÓg

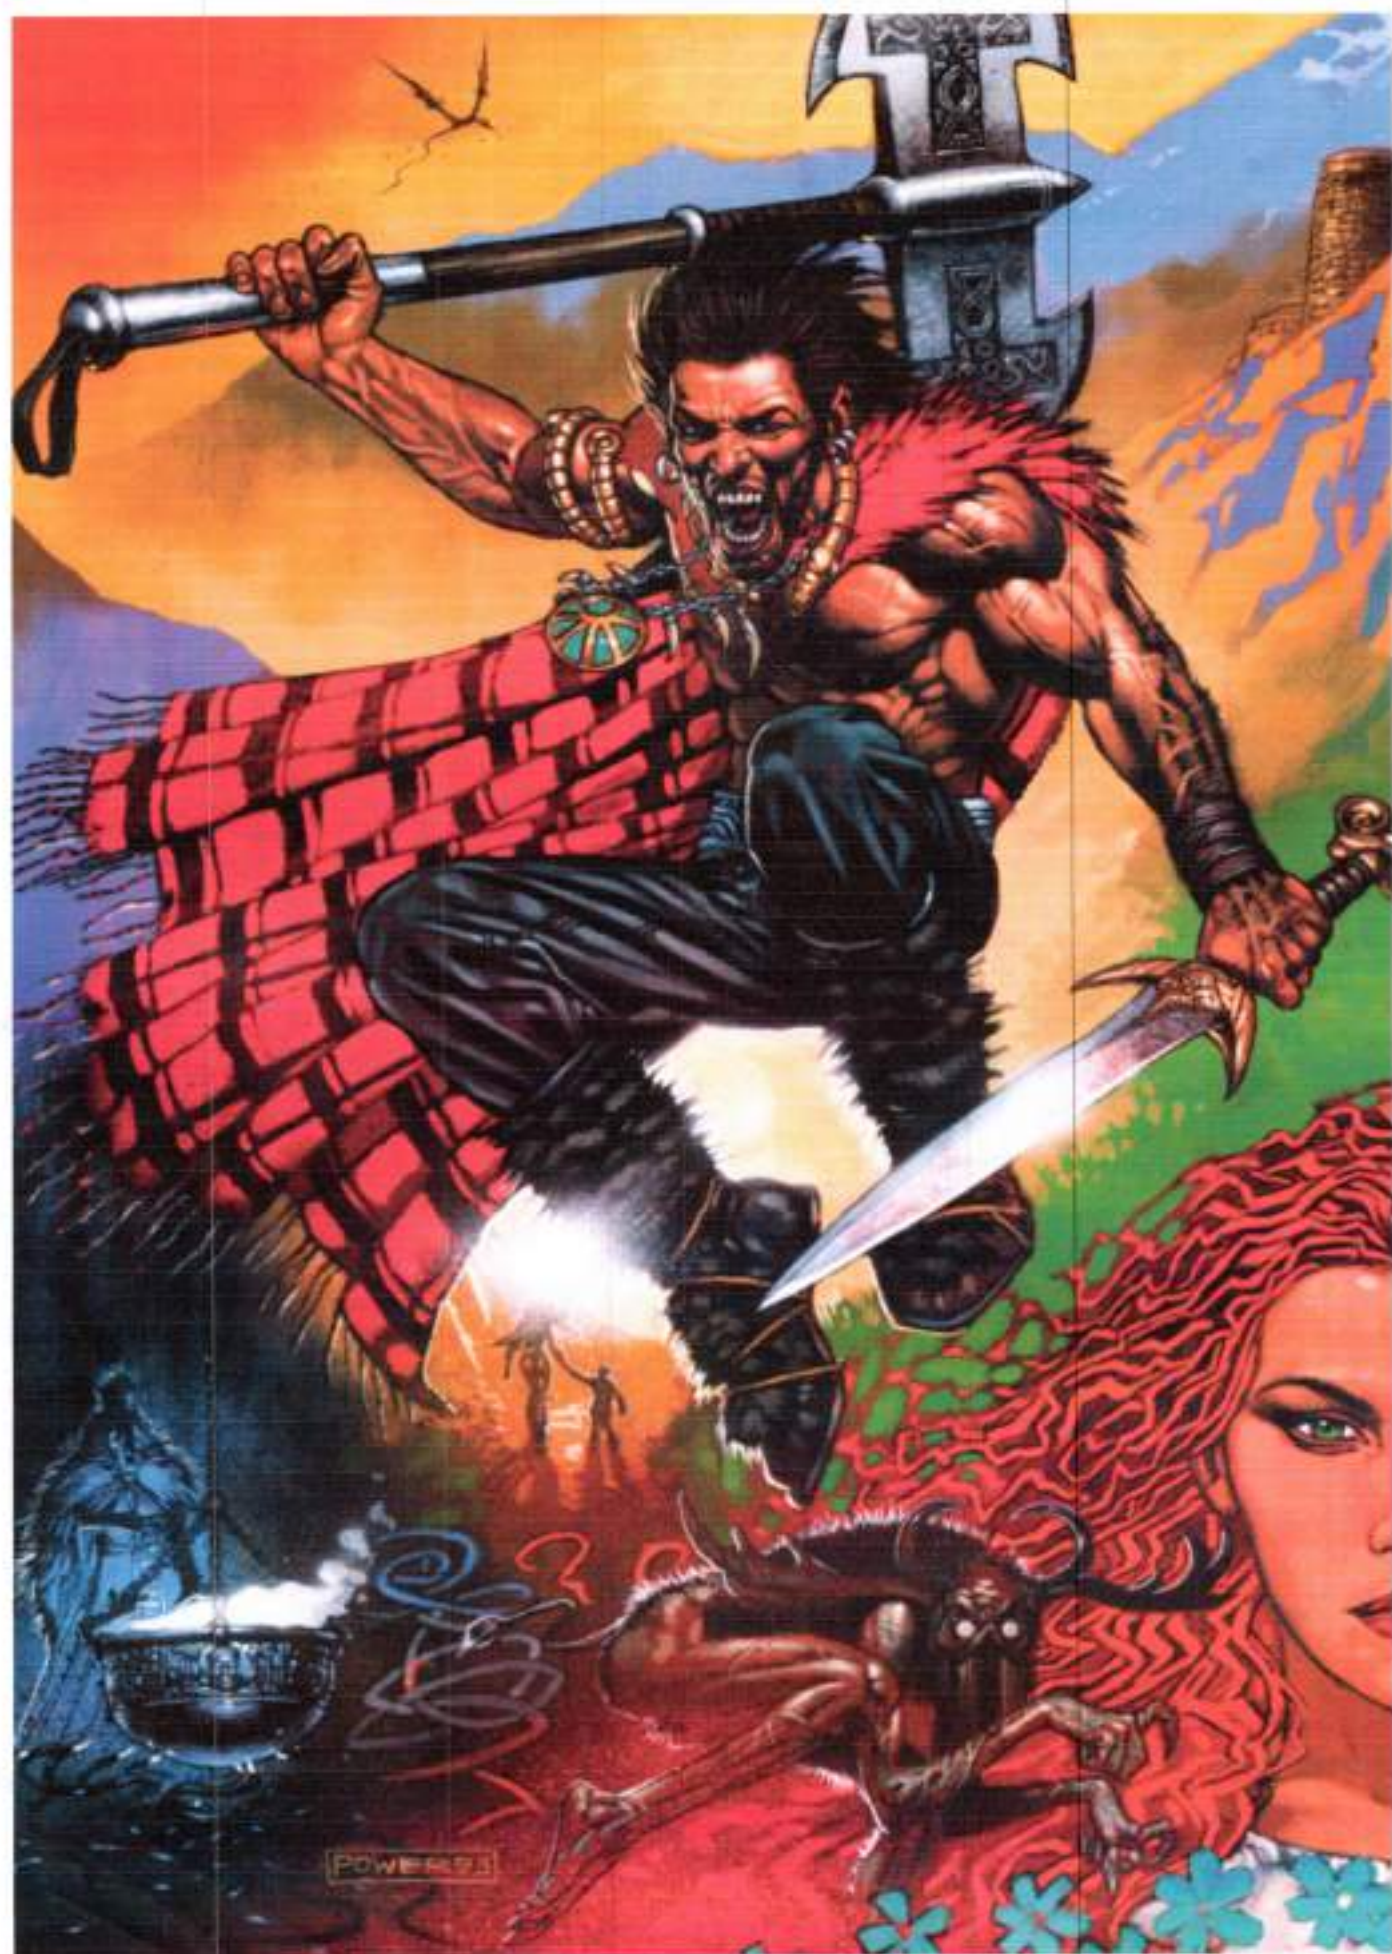

The world Sláine wanders through is fantastical and filled with monsters, including the Fomorians, a race of sea demons who are an eternal enemy for the human tribes who live in constant of being permanently wiped out. They aren't the only enemies who'll cross paths with the Woad Warrior, however: after Sláine and his untrustworthy ally Ukko the Dwarf rescue a young woman from being burned alive in a sacrificial pyre, they learn that she wanted to be sacrificed in the name of her master: the ancient and powerful Lord Weird Slough Feg. He goes on to become Sláine's most famous adversary!

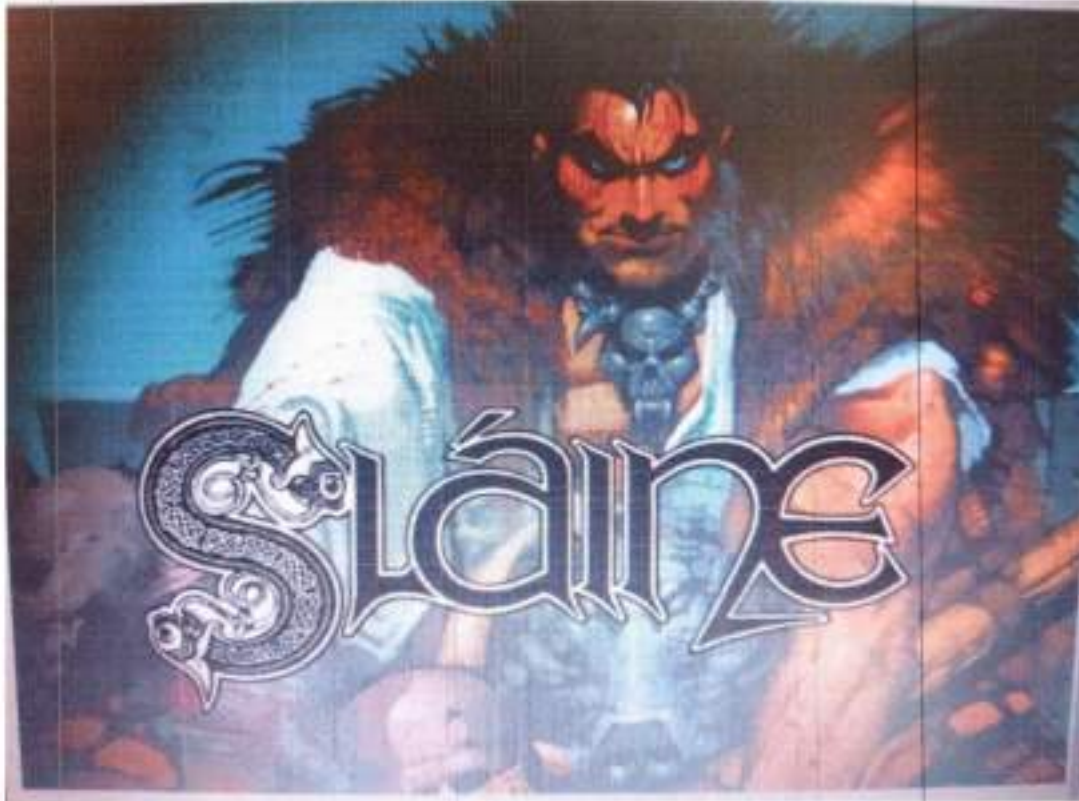

The barbarian tribes of Tír na nÓg all worship Danu The Earth Goddess. One of the true constants in Sláine's life, Danu doesn't just watch over him but pushes him through time in order to defend Ireland from numerous threats as her champion. She rarely acts directly in such conflicts, but has on occasion possessed those around Sláine in order to get the job done...

Rise of a King

Despite being exiled from his home tribe for a dalliance with the Warrior Queen Niamh, Sláine eventually returns and becomes King of the Sessair. Although not yet united with his love – who in his absence has given birth to his son, Kai – he leads his tribe into battle against the Fomorians, seeking to unite all the tribes of Tír na nÓg into a single unstoppable force.

As Sláine takes on Lord Weird Slough Feg's forces in a final desperate battle for ultimate control of the realm, will he be able to withstand the overwhelming opposition he faces – not just from the enemy, but from the other tribes? For the victor, the greatest prize of all: the title of The Horned God, the High King of Ireland!

Introducing Sláine

Hailing from the mystical past realm of Tír na nÓg, Sláine mac Roth is a Celtic Barbarian, part of the Sessair Tribe. After being banished from his tribe, he travels the land as a lone wanderer, encountering dragons, monsters, dwarves and witches as he journeys through the world [They the fourth nazi, illegal, criminal, nazi genocidal murderous, parasitic (echelon this time) reich formation have perpetrated billions nazi crimes and nazi morph genocide (nazi holocaust) against me and against my own genus (and they continue to perpetrate crimes against me and against my own genus). And they for decades (since 1974-1975) stealing from me and my rights and the rights of my own genus and from decades (since 1974-1975) deprive from me (and from my own genus) my greatest (and their greatest from my own biological descendants of my own genus part of their self's their "mighty human self's) part of my self my own "mighty human self", they have even steal my own bone marrow and my own sperm and they have by their own premeditation and by their own nazi motivations premeditated murdered my own babies (unborn) in the gestation stage of their lives (and they continue to perpetrate nazi unholy and hideous crimes against me and against my own genus), but they never managed to steal my genus from me "who" my own genus is inseparable from me and indivisible from me and inseparable and indivisible and among of all of my own biological descendants and among them and me, and they will never manage to steal my genus from me, I follow always the orders of my genus and without to count at all the whoever losses of life's from my genus, and without to count at all and whatever other kind of losses, I am never stop (as since 1974-1975 was never stop) to always move against the nazis of the fourth nazi, illegal, criminal, nazi murderous genocidal, parasitic (echelon this time) reich formation, without to doing never (as never I did) no one kind of negotiations with no one of all them, nor with all of them and with no one way never, and I am not going to do no one kind of negotiations neither agreements with no one and with no one way nor about the whole issue nor about parts of the whole issue never, with no one way never. And now we are find there where as the days pass, we day to day reach closer to the "liberation day" where must be a clear win for us the lawful ones, and because me am sure for me and for my own genus, I am sure that at least for me and for my own genus will be a clear win, the same I hope clear win and for as many others are against to fourth's nazi, criminal, genocidal nazi murderous, parasitic (echelon this time) reich's formation side]. He isn't completely alone in his travels, however: not only does he carry a huge axe which he nicknames "Brain biter", but he also has mastery of "the warp spasm"! ["the warp spasm" could translate as similar with many of the capabilities that me from my creation have as for example to make "the warp bubble" (similar or the same with of the extraterrestrial aerial phenomena capabilities), and of course and it is primal force, my own "mighty human" powers and forces, are natural cosmic powers and forces, "who" have provenance from the universe and from the beginning of the universe and from the most powerful interstellar space bodies the "horizons of factors", and I have and "mighty human" physical/somatic forces, some of my physical/somatic strengths are and that I can to raise my muscle mass and my strength. And the question about, and in extent of hulking warrior? The soon future will show. As for the warp bubble, the extraterrestrial aerial phenomena seem to can endure huge G-forces in the warp bubble, what else or more about? The soon future will show.] This primal force flows straight from the Earth into his body, warping his physical appearance and turning him into a hulking warrior. [of course, Slaine is a virtual comic book hero. I am not a comic book or a comic book hero, but when I was still a child, I read this comic book magazine and the exploits of the warrior Slaine, and as a child, I was dreaming of having his strength and his powers, without knowing at the time that I was created by Mother Nature as the humane variation of "mighty human" and that in reality I was (and am) much more strengthen and more powerful and forceful than Slaine, who Slaine is a creation of ancient mainly Celtic mythology (before Christ era, before prevailed the nowadays religion beliefs), and where the people being living in very difficult conditions (and without having any technology at their disposal at that time) they dreamed of having physical strengths and powers that would allow them to dealing any dangers and problems that been appeared them, and what dangers and problems could appear them. I have no Celtic origins, but of course I have provenance of the whole Earth and because this comic was the reason that was dreamed then enough of what now plan I wanted to mention it]

Created by the then-married creative team of 2000 AD Creator Pat Mills and artist Angela Kincaid in 1983, Sláine has lived through many lives, his journey taking him from lone wanderer to High King of Ireland! One of 2000 AD's most enduring and loved characters, he has been the center for many of the greatest stories in Prog's history!

Tír na nÓg

The world Sláine wanders through is fantastical and filled with monsters, including the Fomorians, a race of sea demons who are an eternal enemy for the human tribes who live in constant of being permanently wiped out. They aren't the only enemies who'll cross paths with the Wood Warrior, however; after Sláine and his untrustworthy ally Ukko the Dwarf rescue a young woman from being burned alive in a sacrificial pyre, they learn that she wanted to be sacrificed in the name of her master: the ancient and powerful Lord Weird Slough Feg. He goes on to become Sláine's most famous adversary!

The barbarian tribes of Tír na nÓg all worship Danu The Earth Goddess. One of the true constants in Sláine's life, Danu doesn't just watch over him but pushes him through time in order to defend Ireland from numerous threats as her champion. She rarely acts directly in such conflicts, but has on occasion possessed those around Sláine in order to get the job done...

Rise of a King

Despite being exiled from his home tribe for a dalliance with the Warrior Queen Niamh, Sláine eventually returns and becomes King of the Sessair. Although not yet united with his love – who in his absence has given birth to his son, Kai – he leads his tribe into battle against the Fomorians, seeking to unite all the tribes of Tír na nÓg into a single unstoppable force.

As Sláine takes on Lord Weird Slough Feg's forces in a final desperate battle for ultimate control of the realm, will he be able to withstand the overwhelming opposition he faces – not just from the enemy, but from the other tribes? For the victor, the greatest prize of all: the title of The Horned God, the High King of Ireland!

[I have not at all in my mind to become neither king nor emperor, and eventually the planet Earth do not need emperors there is international organization the UN, that easy to expand or to made in UN an extension for planetary UN duties and with ability for interplanetary duties (must be created a place in UN organization for the enormous and interplanetary Earthy's "who")]
